San Gabriel Mission's Celebration in Jubilee Year

By Pablo Kay, Angelus Editor-in-Chief

When the four-alarm fire struck in the pre-dawn hours of July 11, 2020, destroying San Gabriel Mission's roof and damaging most of its interior, mission officials and the local community were devastated.

But now, as the mission prepares for its 250th anniversary, silver linings from the fire perhaps more valuable than the millions of dollars in damage it caused are starting to emerge.

Behind those peeling layers of plaster, for example, workers have discovered painted walls with colorful designs that historians never knew existed. Beneath the sunken floors of the mission's sacristy and tiny baptistry — crushed by the 150,000 gallons of water firefighters used to extinguish the blaze and save the mission from total destruction — previously unknown layers of old brick and slabs of stone mined from the San Gabriel Mountains have been unearthed.

Discoveries like these are handy tools to help historians understand the mission's spotty past. For Terri Huerta, the mission's historical director, the hidden blessings of last summer's fire are becoming clearer every day. "Mission San Gabriel has kind of been a sleeping giant," she explained during a recent visit to San Gabriel. "It's been here, but no one's really had the opportunity, like we do now, to tell its story."

In other words, the fire may turn out to be just the providential sign that Los Angeles' oldest Catholic outpost needed to reconnect with its historical and missionary identity — and right in time to kickoff a "jubilee year" that Archbishop José H. Gomez is planning to mark its 250th birthday.

An unexpected opportunity

Telling the mission's story has always been a challenge. The founding Spanish Franciscan missionaries were meticulous record-keepers — keeping track of everything from baptisms and weddings to crop yields — but after they were expelled in the 1830s, the newly privatized mission largely fell into decay under Mexican rule. Although it became a popular visitor attraction in the second half of the 1800s, its subsequent inhabitants did not always do a great job of keeping records. As Huerta admitted, the mission "has never really had a verifiable narrative."

Few in this close-knit mission parish have taken the tragic fire more personally than Huerta. Since the '70s, Huerta's family has celebrated baptisms, weddings, confirmations, and anniversaries here. Her brother is buried in the cemetery on the mission grounds. But now she is a first-person witness to how last summer's fire is providing key insights into mysteries like what the church's interior design first looked like, or how its design evolved over the centuries. "We have Steven Hackell, historian at the University of California, Riverside, is the chairperson of the mission's Museum Committee. By forcing the removal of all of its surviving artifacts from the mission, the fire means his team can now develop a full inventory of those items, which include paintings, sculptures, books, and even liturgical vestments — and decide how and where to best preserve them.

Like Huerta, he sees the work ahead as a have to share with the public," said Huerta.

The timeline for the restoration is still unfolding. Mission officials hope to have the new roof and ceiling fully installed by the time Archbishop Gomez celebrates the inaugural Mass for the jubilee year, slated for September 11, and expect the mission to be "fully functional" by the end of the jubilee.

A new generation of missionaries?

On June 12, 2021, Archbishop Gomez announced a special jubilee year to mark the mission's 250th anniversary. In a letter to L.A. Catholics, the archbishop wrote that the year will celebrate San Gabriel Mission's status as the "first church in what is now the Archdiocese of Los Angeles."

Since the 14th century, the Church has celebrated jubilees at regular intervals. The pope can also proclaim "extraordinary jubilees" to mark special events or anniversaries or to fulfill a special need (the last was in 2000, celebrated as "The Great Jubilee," marking the beginning of the third millennium since the birth of Jesus).

To each jubilee the Church attaches certain indulgences, which are opportunities for grace and mercy. They may involve pilgrimages, prayers, or charitable works.

In Los Angeles, the San Gabriel jubilee year is being organized around both senses of the word "mission": Special events, parish initiatives, and pilgrimage opportunities are being planned, with the intention of educating Catholics about the mission's past while forming them to evangelize in the future.

The year will kick off on September 8, 2021 with an opening prayer service at San Gabriel Mission, followed by 40 consecutive hours of eucharistic adoration at 22 parishes around the archdiocese designated as jubilee pilgrimage sites (one in each of the archdiocese's 20 deaneries, plus St. Catherine of Alexandria on Catalina Island and Our Lady Queen of Angels, "La Placita," near downtown Los Angeles).

In between, the archdiocese will be promoting "pilgrimage walks" between missions, parish retreats, a historical exhibit on the mission at the cathedral, and a curriculum on local church history and evangelization for use in Catholic schools.

learned so much about this building from the fire," said Huerta.

While researchers have long thought the structure was built with adobe bricks, the blaze has revealed that the natives and missionaries who worked together to build the mission actually used fired brick and mortar.

Six wooden statues and a painting with a miraculous reputation damaged by the fire are in the process of professional restoration. The church's original reredos and altar, which firefighters were able to save during the early morning firefight, also need to be cleaned and repainted.

special opportunity. "If you went through your attic and cleaned it up one day, you wouldn't just put everything back where it was once the floors are dusted and the windows are clean," Hackell explained. "You'd make decisions."

Huerta hopes that some of those decisions will be formed by an advisory panel with art experts from the Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA) and the Getty Museum to guide the repainting of the church's interior.

"I think it's a great opportunity for us to be a little more methodical about deciding what the mission is going to look like after we're done, and what educational opportunities we

Coat of Arms

Pope Francis has kept his episcopal coat of arms and motto for his pontificate, adding the bishop's miter and the keys of St. Peter. The silver miter has three gold stripes to mirror order, jurisdiction and magisterium, and a vertical gold band connects the three stripes in the middle to indicate their unity in the same person. The papal emblem uses a gold key to represent the power in heaven and a silver key to indicate the spiritual authority of the papacy on earth. The red cord that unites the two keys alludes to the bond between the two powers.

The dark blue shield is divided into three sections. On the top is the official seal of the Society of Jesus; the symbol shows a blazing yellow sun with "IHS" in red letters, the sign for the name of Jesus. A red cross rises up from the letter H and three black nails rest below. The bottom part of the shield depicts an eight-pointed gold star representing Mary and the buds of a spikenard flower representing St. Joseph. The papal motto inscribed on a white, red-edged banner underneath the shield is the Latin phrase "Miserando atque eligendo," literally, "by having mercy, by choosing him," relating to the call of St. Matthew, the tax collector.

Pope Francis

Address: Apostolic Palace, Vatican City State, 00120; Twitter: @Pontifex

On Wednesday, March 13, 2013, the Jesuit Cardinal Jorge Bergoglio was elected as the 266th Pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church and chose the papal name Francis to honor Saint Francis of Assisi. He succeeded Pope Benedict XVI who resigned after nearly eight years. Jorge Mario Bergoglio was born on December 17, 1936 in Buenos Aires, growing up in the working-class neighborhood of Barrio de Flores, son of an Italian immigrant railway worker and a homemaker. Even after a case of severe pneumonia and the partial removal of his right lung, he entered the Jesuit novitiate, and on December 13, 1969 he was ordained a priest for the Society of Jesus (the Jesuits). After serving as a teacher, and in posts as novice master and provincial superior, in 1992 he was appointed as Auxiliary Bishop of Buenos Aires. Five years later, he was appointed Coadjutor Archbishop and on February 28, 1998 he succeeded Cardinal Antonio Quarracino as Archbishop of Buenos Aires. On February 21, 2001 he was elevated to Cardinal. On Tuesday, March 19, 2013, he was installed as Pope. Francis is the first Jesuit pope, the first pope from the Americas and the Southern Hemisphere, and the first choosing the name Francis. He is fluent in Spanish and Italian, and conversant in Latin, German, French, and English. He is an accomplished theologian and has written books on spirituality and meditation.

Coat of Arms

Archbishop Gomez's coat of arms contains on the left side the shield of the Archdiocese with three sets of angels' wings, each guarding a golden rose. The roses symbolize the Blessed Mother and the angels' wings represent the City of Our Lady of the Angels.

The right side of the shield contains the Archbishop's personal arms. It contains a design based on the arms of his home, the City of Monterrey in Mexico. It is composed of a silver field that depicts the mountains outside the city with peaks that resemble a "saddle." A red sunburst peers from behind the green mountains.

In the upper left corner is a red rosebud with green stem and leaves. The rose is a traditional symbol of Our Lady of Guadalupe and is also associated with events in the life of St. Josemaría Escrivá, founder of Opus Dei. The blue star opposite the rose signifies that the Blessed Virgin Mary has been designated as the Star of the New Evangelization at the beginning of the third millennium and it also represents the state of Texas which was his home for 14 years as a priest and then five years as Archbishop of San Antonio.

For his motto, Archbishop Gomez adopted the phrase "Adeamus cum fiducia ad thronum gratiae" from Hebrews 4:16, "Let us go forth with confidence to the throne of grace." The joining of the arms of the Archdiocese with Archbishop Gomez's personal arms signifies the spiritual union of a Bishop with his See.

Bishop of Diocese of Both Californias

Born September 17, 1785 in Lagos, Mexico; a member of the Order of Friars Minor, Franciscan; died April 30, 1846 in Santa Barbara (age 60); buried in sanctuary of Santa Barbara Mission.

The beginning of Catholicism in California dates from the early explorations of Juan Cabrillo in 1542 and Sebastian Vizcaino in 1602 and the priests who accompanied these explorers. The actual founding of El Pueblo de Nuestra Señora la Reina de Los Angeles occurred in 1781. By 1840 Pope Gregory XVI established a hierarchy in California and named Franciscan Friar Francisco Garcia Diego y Moreno as the first bishop of the gigantic Diocese of Both Californias, which extended from the Oregon line to all of Baja California. He was ordained as bishop at the National Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico and opened the first seminary on the Pacific Coast. Bishop Moreno served the new diocese for six years.

Bishop Joseph Sadoc Alemany y Conill, O.P.
1850-1853
Bishop of Diocese of Monterey

Born July 13, 1814 in Vich, Spain; a member of the Order of Preachers, Dominican; died April 14, 1888 in Valencia, Spain (age 73); buried in Holy Cross Mausoleum in Colma, California.

After the death of Bishop Garcia, Father Gonzalez Rubio headed the diocese for four years as interim administrator. In 1849 the See officially became the Diocese of Monterey. Two years later, California became a state and Pope Pius IX named Dominican Father Joseph Sadoc Alemany, who was the provincial of the Dominicans in the United States, as bishop of the Monterey Diocese. In 1853 he was named the first Archbishop of San Francisco and peninsular California (Baja) was separated. He headed the Archdiocese until 1884 when he returned to Spain and died there in 1888. One of his achievements in the Diocese was the establishment of the first school for girls in 1851 under the direction of the Dominican Sisters.

Bishop Thaddeus Amat y Brusi, C.M.
1853-1878
Bishop of Diocese of Monterey (1853-1859)
Bishop of Monterey-Los Angeles (1859-1878)

Born December 31, 1810 in Barcelona, Spain; member of Congregation of the Mission, Vincentian; died May 12, 1878 in Los Angeles (age 67); buried in the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels, Los Angeles.

The Metropolitan See of San Francisco in 1853 separated into smaller dioceses. The Holy See then appointed Vincentian Father Thaddeus Amat as the new Bishop of Monterey, that then extended from San Jose south to the Mexican border. He first established his residence at Santa Barbara, and Rome approved the move to Los Angeles in 1859 when the diocese was officially named Monterey-Los Angeles. He represented the diocese at the First Vatican Council (1869-70), established parochial schools and erected St. Vibiana Cathedral in 1876. Bishop Amat also brought the first orders of nuns to the city: Sisters of Charity and Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Bishop Francisco Mora y Borrell
1878-1896
Bishop of Diocese of Monterey-Los Angeles

Born November 25, 1827 in Catalonia, Spain; died August 3, 1905 in Spain (age 77); buried in the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels, Los Angeles.

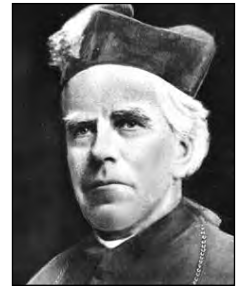

In 1863 Francisco Mora was named rector, and later became Vicar-General, of the Church of Our Lady Queen of Angels, "La Placita," located in the oldest part of downtown Los Angeles. Bishop Amat consecrated him a bishop in 1873 with the right of succession. Bishop Mora then headed the Diocese of Monterey-Los Angeles (75,984 square miles) in 1878 and for 18 years worked tirelessly to establish 72 parishes while facing many legal battles against the church. In 1895 he welcomed The Catholic Tidings, the first Catholic newspaper for the diocese. He resigned in 1896 and returned to Spain where he died in 1905. In 1962 his body was re-entombed in the Bishops' Chapel at Calvary Mausoleum in East Los Angeles.

Bishop George T. Montgomery
1896-1903
Bishop of Diocese of Monterey-Los Angeles

Born December 30, 1847 in Davis County, Kentucky; died January 10, 1907 in San Francisco (age 59); buried in Holy Cross Mausoleum in Colma, California.

Bishop Montgomery was born in Kentucky, the first native American head of the diocese, ordained a priest in 1879 and consecrated a bishop in 1894. He assisted in the administration of the diocese as coadjutor because of Bishop Mora's failing health and assumed complete administration of the Diocese of Monterey-Los Angeles in 1896. During his seven years as bishop, he faced serious bigotry but proved himself a great civic leader and dynamic churchman. In 1903 he was named coadjutor, with right of succession, to Archbishop Patrick Riordan of San Francisco. He served as archbishop for four years and died there in 1907, mourned by Catholics and non-Catholics throughout the state.

Bishop Thomas J. Conaty
1903-1915
Bishop of Diocese of Monterey-Los Angeles

Born August 1, 1847 in County Cavan, Ireland; died September 18, 1915 in Coronado, California (age 68); buried in the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels, Los Angeles.

Bishop Conaty had just completed a six-year term as rector of The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., when he was appointed head of the See of Monterey-Los Angeles. One of his major interests was Catholic education and preserving the California Missions. He organized the St. Vincent de Paul Society and, in 1904, acquired The Tidings as the official diocesan publication. During Bishop Conaty's episcopate, the total population doubled, priests numbered 229 and many new orders of Sisters were serving the diocese in education, hospitals and orphanages. When he died in 1915, the Catholic population had grown to 178,000, three times the number when he came to the diocese.

Bishop/Archbishop John J. Cantwell
1917-1947
Bishop of Diocese of Monterey-Los Angeles
(1917-1922)
Bishop of Diocese of Los Angeles-San Diego
(1922-1936)
Archbishop of Archdiocese of Los Angeles
(1936-1947)

Born December 1, 1874 in Limerick, Ireland, died October 30, 1947 in Los Angeles (age 72); buried in the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels, Los Angeles.

Two major divisions of the Monterey-Los Angeles Diocese occurred during Archbishop Cantwell's 30 years. In 1922 Pope Pius XI approved the division of the 90,000-square-mile diocese and created the Diocese of Los Angeles-San Diego. The next major alteration occurred in 1936 with the erection of a second Metropolitan District in California at Los Angeles, with the four southernmost counties comprising the Diocese of San Diego. He became the first archbishop, noted for his provisions for the spiritual and material welfare of non-English speaking people, and created 50 Hispanic parishes and missions.

Cardinal Archbishop James Francis McIntyre
1948-1970
Archbishop of Archdiocese of Los Angeles

Born June 25, 1886 in New York City; died July 16, 1979 in Los Angeles (age 93); buried in the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels, Los Angeles.

Cardinal McIntyre was an auxiliary bishop of the Archdiocese of New York for six years before his appointment to Los Angeles. Just five years after the appointment, in 1952, Pope Pius XII elevated him to the rank of cardinal, the first cardinal in the western United States. Cardinal McIntyre served during a period of incredible growth and expansion. Between 1948 and 1963, 82 parishes were added and Catholic schools more than doubled from 147 to 347, about one a month for 15 years. A tremendous wave of immigration brought an influx of Chinese, Japanese, Vietnamese, Koreans and other Asiatic groups as well as a rise of Hispanics and African-Americans in the Church. This period also witnessed several upheavals within the Church, including the Second Vatican Council and the exodus of many women religious from their communities.

Cardinal Archbishop Timothy Manning
1970-1985
Archbishop of Archdiocese of Los Angeles

Born November 15, 1909 in County Cork, Ireland; died June 23, 1989 in Los Angeles (age 79); buried in Calvary Cemetery, East Los Angeles.

Cardinal Manning served as auxiliary bishop in Los Angeles from 1946 to 1967, before being named as bishop of Fresno. In 1970 Coadjutor Archbishop Manning acceded to the See as the third Archbishop of Los Angeles and three years later became the second cardinal of the largest city in the world dedicated to Our Blessed Mother. For 15 years the Irish-born prelate prevailed through enormous changes in the Church aided by four auxiliary bishops for the three counties (Los Angeles, Santa Barbara and Ventura); in 1976 Orange County was separated into the Diocese of Orange. Cardinal Manning ordained the first permanent deacon class for the archdiocese in 1975 and by the end of his episcopate the Catholic population was close to 2.5 million. As bishop, he confirmed over 650,000 young people.

Cardinal Archbishop Roger M. Mahony
1985-2011
Archbishop Emeritus of Archdiocese of Los Angeles

Born February 27, 1936 in North Hollywood; graduate of St. Charles Borromeo School, North Hollywood; first L.A. archbishop ordained from St. John's Seminary (1962).

Originally ordained a priest for the Diocese of Fresno, Cardinal Roger Mahony in 1985 became the first native-born Angeleno to lead the largest Archdiocese in the country. Prior to that appointment, he served as Auxiliary Bishop of Fresno from 1975 to 1980, and as Bishop of Stockton from 1980 to 1985. He was elevated to the rank of Cardinal in 1991 by Saint Pope John Paul II. He created the five Pastoral Regions for the Los Angeles Archdiocese in 1986. He oversaw the construction of the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels, which began its service to the community September 2, 2002. Cardinal Mahony retired March 1, 2011 as the active Archbishop of Los Angeles. Over 57 years a priest, he served the Los Angeles Archdiocese for 25 years. His post-retirement ministry focuses on immigration reform.

ARCHDIOCESAN GOLDEN JUBILARIANS FOR 2021

IN THE YEAR 1971, 61-year-old Archbishop Timothy Manning was in his second year as Archbishop of Los Angeles. He had previously served as Auxiliary Bishop in Los Angeles (from 1946-1967) before being appointed Bishop of Fresno. Only two years later, in 1969, he returned as Coadjutor Archbishop of Los Angeles and successor to Cardinal James Francis McIntyre. (Archbishop Manning was elevated to Cardinal in 1973.)

On May 29, 1971 Archbishop Timothy Manning ordained seven graduates of St. John's Seminary, Camarillo, to the priesthood at 8:30 a.m. at St. Vibiana's Cathedral. The following are brief summaries of the Jubilarians' years of ministry in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles.

Two years later, he served as Associate at Immaculate Conception, L.A. before he was incardinated in 1989 into the Los Angeles Archdiocese and assigned as Associate at St. Rose of Lima, Maywood. He was named Pastor at St. Columbkille before moving to San Francisco, both L.A. parishes, where he served as Administrator and then as Pastor until 2016 when he retired. He is currently living privately.

After an active leave, he returned in 1982 as Associate Director of the Handicapped Office before being named Director of the Archdiocesan Apostolate to the Deaf. He served as Pastor of Holy Angels Church of the Deaf in Vernon, where he was appointed Administrator of their Team Ministry. He served the Archdiocese as Director of the Office of Continuing Formation for Clergy and as a Consultant to the Los Angeles Council of Priests. Recalling a Notable Tidings Staffer with Nearly 29 Years at the ACC Hermine A. Lees, a former staff writer for The Tidings and editor of the archdiocesan Catholic Directory, died July 3, 2021 at her home in Cambria of natural causes.

A lifelong Catholic, Lees served nearly 29 years as a staff writer for The Tidings (predecessor publication of Angelus), from January 1986 to October 2014.

In 1994, Lees became editor of the Los Angeles Archdiocese's Catholic Directory, a post she held for 15 years.

Hermine Lees at a February 20, 2007 celebration at the ACC honoring her 80th birthday.

At The Tidings, Lees reported on all facets of local church life, with a particular interest in ecumenical/interfaith affairs and local church history. From 2001 to 2014, she wrote historical sidebar pieces to accompany "The Faces of God" parish profiles and photos by Sr. Nancy Munro, a Sister of Saint Joseph of Carondelet.

Born Hermine Anna Woerlein in Oak Park, Illinois, she came as a young girl with her family to Los Angeles and attended local Catholic schools. For a short time was a sister of the Immaculate Heart of Mary (IHM), but left religious life and married Walter Lees in 1957, but she remained a member of the Immaculate Heart Community throughout her life.

Lees also Santa Rosa Church in Cambria. For a number of years, she managed the bookstore at La Casa de Maria Retreat Center in Santa Barbara, a ministry of the IHM community, and she contributed to many IHM newsletters and outreach efforts.

MISSION STATEMENT - ARCHDIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

We, the People of God of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, humbly accept our mission to continue the redemptive work of Jesus Christ.

Baptized into the Body of Christ, confirmed in the Holy Spirit, and nourished by the Word and Eucharist, we share Christ's mission of priest, prophet and servant.

We affirm our oneness with the Catholic Church throughout the world, in communion with our Holy Father.

With the pastoral leadership of our Archbishop, we collaborate in various ways to live and proclaim the gospel.

Christ announced the Reign of God. As Church, we are the instrument of this reign in the world.
 We commit ourselves to build a community of faith and love.

With Christ, we bring good news to the poor. We commit ourselves to eliminate the many faces of poverty in our midst – physical, spiritual and moral.

With Christ, we uphold the dignity of human life. We commit ourselves to cherish each person and to be faithful stewards of all God's creation.

With Christ, we affirm the bonds that unite us. We commit ourselves to remove the barriers that divide people in the large, complex and multicultural society of Southern California.

We dedicate our parish communities and our schools, institutions, ministries and organizations to fulfill this mission under the loving patronage of Mary, Queen of Angels.

About the Region

There are 56 parishes in the region located among 29 cities, including seven in Los Angeles. The region is named after the mission, San Fernando Rey de España that was founded in 1797 to honor St. Ferdinand, King of Castile and Leon in the 13th century. Saint Pope John Paul II visited the mission during his trip to L.A. in 1987. The Archdiocesan Archival Center and museum are on the mission grounds.

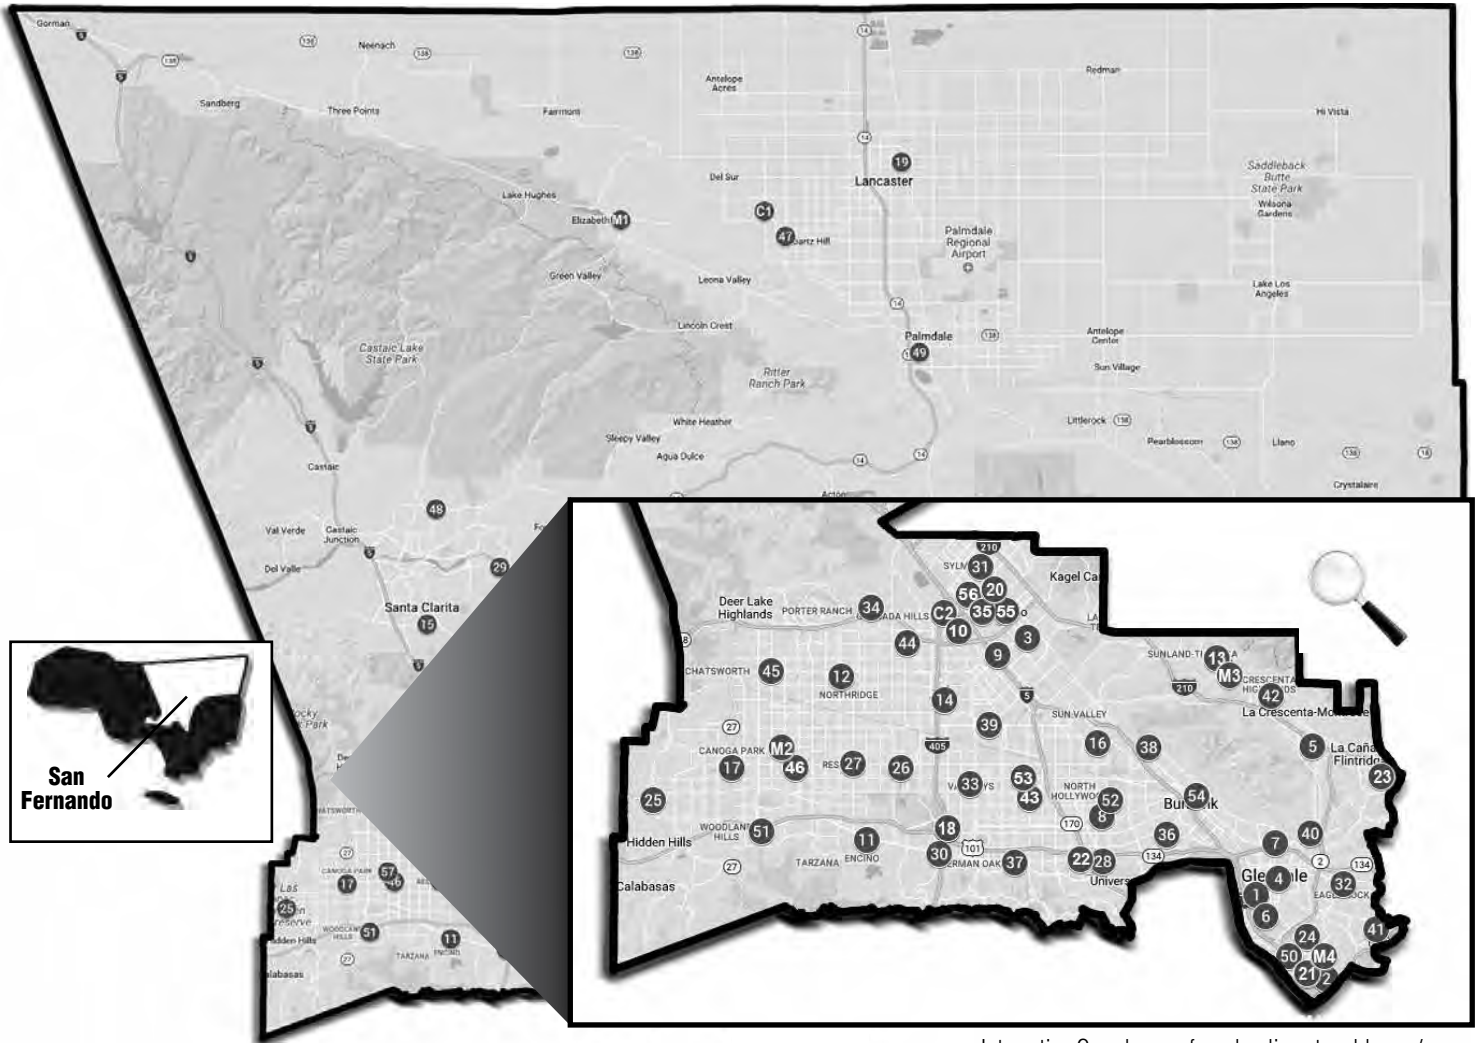

There are two other retreat centers in addition to St. Andrew's Abbey (the Benedictine monastery and retreat center), the only abbey in the archdiocese. The region has 11 high schools and seven parochial missions.

Eight Eastern Catholic churches are in the region – Armenian, Assyrian Chaldean, Byzantine, Coptic, Melkite Greek, Syriac and Syro-Malibar.

TRIDENTINE LATIN / EXTRAORDINARY FORM MASSES

The Ordinary Form of the Roman Rite (the Missal of Pope Paul VI-1969) is the familiar post-Vatican Mass. The Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite (the Missal of Blessed John XXIII-1962), or "Tridentine" Rite, has similar elements, but each has its own distinguishing characteristics. For example, each form has its own liturgical calendar and cycle of readings. The Ordinary Form has multiple Eucharistic Prayers, but the Extraordinary Form uses the Roman Canon exclusively.

The term "High Mass" or "Solemn High Mass" (Latin: missa solemnis) is the full ceremonial form of the Tridentine Mass requiring most of the parts of the Mass to be sung along with the use of incense. "Low Mass" is defined officially in the Code of Rubrics included in the 1962 edition of the Roman Missal as Mass in which the priest does not chant the parts that the rubrics assign to him.

Please check with the specific parish for the most up-to-date Mass times.

EASTERN CATHOLIC CHURCHES

The Eastern Catholic Churches, also historically known as the Eastern-rite Catholic Churches, are 23 Eastern Christian churches in full communion with the Pope in Rome, as part of the worldwide Catholic Church. Headed by patriarchs, metropolitans and major archbishops, the Eastern Catholic Churches are governed in accordance with the Code of Canons of the Eastern Churches, each church with its own canons and laws in addition. The total membership of the various churches accounts for about 16 million, thus making up about 1.5 percent of the Catholic Church, with the rest of its more than 1.2 billion members belonging to the (Western) Latin Church. Full communion constitutes mutual sacramental sharing between the Eastern Catholic Churches and the Latin Church, including Eucharistic intercommunion.

PARISH LIFE DIRECTORS & PASTORAL ASSOCIATES

Office of New Evangelization & Parish Life: 3424 Wilshire Blvd, L.A. 90010-2241 (213) 637-7366; web: archla.org/onepl
Director: Bobby Vidal, email: bvidal@la-archdiocese.org

Vatican II reminded us of the ancient understanding of the priesthood of all the baptized. It is through our baptism that we are all called to participate in the apostolic work of the Church. More recently, in 1983, the Code of Canon Law was revised and now includes a provision that "in the case of a lack of priests," pastoral care can be done by someone other than a priest (517.2). In the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, Cardinal Roger Mahony anticipated such a time when, in April 1997, he directed his Leadership Team to form a study group to look at the feasibility of a new ministry, that of "Pastoral Associate." A year later, following publication of a draft document describing the role of a Pastoral Associate, a pilot program was approved.

In 1999, the Department for Pastoral Associates was established, the predecessor to the Office of Parish Life. On Holy Thursday of 2000, the Cardinal issued the document, "As I Have Done for You," in which he affirmed lay ecclesial ministry. The Cardinal described lay ecclesial ministry as "a vocation of full time Church service in response to the needs of each local community ... a unique vocation in the Church, a call to service in the name of the Church ... exercised in a stable, public, recognized, and authorized way." The first group of Pastoral Associates for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles was commissioned by the Cardinal in 2003.

Nationally, other important events related to the development of lay ecclesial ministry have occurred. In 2000, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops issued the document, "Called and Gifted: The American Catholic Laity," which notes that "since the Second Vatican Council new opportunities have developed for lay men and women in the Church" (no. 7). In 2005, the USCCB released "Co-Workers in the Vineyard, a Resource for Guiding the Development of Lay Ecclesial Ministry," which "expresses our strong desire for the fruitful collaboration of ordained and lay ministers who, in distinct but complimentary ways, continue in the Church the saving mission of Christ for the world" (no. 6). In November 2011, the bishops approved an updated version of the National Certification Standards for Lay Ecclesial Ministers.

We have arrived at a time when we do not always have a priest available to serve the needs of the people of God. Simultaneously, we have witnessed the growing phenomenon of lay men and women discerning a call to serve the Church in a professional capacity, equipping themselves to do so through prayer, formation, education and training. The Office of Parish Life helps those preparing for service as Parish Life Directors and Pastoral Associates.

PARISH LIFE DIRECTORS

Parish Life Directors and Parish Life Deacons serve as the spiritual and administrative leader in a parish where there is not a priest pastor. A Priest Moderator, the canonical pastor of the parish, is available for advice and counsel. A Parish Life Director works with a Priest Minister who is responsible for the sacramental life of the parish. It is preferred that a Parish Life Director be a commissioned Pastoral Associate with several years of experience serving the diocese in that role before becoming a Parish Life Director.

PASTORAL ASSOCIATES

A Pastoral Associate is a generalist in ministry who works collaboratively with a priest pastor to serve the needs of the parish. The Pastoral Associate's ministry will vary from one parish to another depending upon the direction of the pastor, the specific needs of the parish, the gifts and talents of the Pastoral Associate, and the other staff resources available.

A brief history of St. John's Seminary

On March 3, 1927, the Board of Diocesan Seminary Trustees for Los Angeles accepted an offer from Don Juan Camarillo (1867-1936) of 100 acres on a hill terrace overlooking a small farming community in Ventura County as the site for a future seminary. The economic crisis at the time slowed fundraising efforts, but through the generous contributions of the people of the diocese, Archbishop John J. Cantwell (1917-1947) announced the building of the seminary on January 14, 1938. By August, ground was broken; and on September 12, 1939, St. John's Seminary opened its doors to 70 candidates for the priesthood.

Archbishop Cantwell entrusted the administration of the seminary to the Vincentian Fathers and named its first rector, Fr. William P. Barr, C.M. (1939-1949), along with 10 faculty members. Further construction brought completion of the seminary chapel and its solemn consecration by the Archbishop on October 8, 1939. Just a year later, on October 14, 1940, the Apostolic Delegate, Archbishop Amleto Cicognoni, dedicated the Edward L. Doheny Memorial Library. St. John's Seminary received its first accreditation from the Western College Association in 1951. The increased number of candidates in the six-year academic program required Cardinal James Francis McIntyre to complete a long-planned expansion of the seminary. In 1956, a student recreation hall, additional classrooms, and a new dormitory dedicated to St. Thomas Aquinas were added.

It was Fr. William Kenneally, C.M. (1958-1967) who supervised the construction of St. John's Seminary College, which began operations on the crest of the hill above the theologate. With the opening of the college came the four-year philosophy and theology programs, and the college was now empowered to grant a Master of Arts degree. The Theology and College Divisions remained under the same administration until 1966, when Very Rev. Louis J. Franz, C.M. (1966-1970) was named the first Rector of the College.

From 1962 to 2003, the Seminary College provided undergraduate education in philosophy and liberal arts. Due to low enrollment, the College division was closed in May 2003, and a Pre-Theology program was inaugurated. The Carrie Estelle Doheny Memorial Library (Philosophy Library) functions as the Pre-Theology Center.

Under the leadership of Fr. John Grindel, C.M. (1973-1978), the Theology Division received its initial accreditation in 1976 from the Association of Theological Schools (ATS) in the United States and Canada. Fr. Charles Miller, C.M. (1978-1987) served until Cardinal Roger Mahony named Msgr. George H. Neiderauer (1987-1992), the first in a succession of diocesan priest rectors: Under the leadership of Msgr. Jeremiah McCarthy (1994-2001), a grant from the Lilly Foundation provided for technological renovation of the seminary classrooms; Under the leadership of Msgr. Helmut A. Hefner, J.C.L. (2001-2007) the seminary initiated a strategic plan and refurbished the seminary's entrance and chapel courtyard. In May 2003, the seminary inaugurated a Master's in Pastoral Ministry, which added lay ministers support.

During the service of Msgr. Craig A. Cox as Rector (2007-2014), the seminary received reaccreditation for maximum terms from the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) and ATS. In addition, the St. Mary and St. Thomas Dormitories were remodeled and other improvements to programs and facilities were undertaken. Msgr. Marc V. Trudeau (2014-2018) was rector during the Seminary's 75th anniversary of its founding in September 2014. It was on July 1, 2018 that Archbishop José Gomez appointed Fr. Marco A. Durazo, S.T.D. (2018-present) to serve as the 14th rector of St. John's Seminary.

OFFICE OF MARRIAGE & FAMILY LIFE

Director: Joan Vienna Office: 3424 Wilshire Blvd. L.A. 90010-2241 (213) 637-7227 FAX (213) 637-6681; web: www.la-archdiocese.org/org/familylife

The Synod Fathers emphasized that Christian families, by the grace of the sacrament of matrimony, are the principal agents of the family apostolate, above all through "their joy-filled witness as domestic churches." The Church wishes, with humility and compassion, to reach out to families and "to help each family to discover the best way to overcome any obstacles it encounters" (Pope Francis, Amoris Laetitia [The Joy of Love], #227). It is not enough to show generic concern for the family in pastoral planning. Enabling families to take up their role as active agents of the family apostolate calls for "an effort at evangelization and catechesis inside the family" (#228). The Office of Marriage & Family Life answers Pope Francis' call by offering support to married couples, widowed, divorced and separated families with the following programs and resources:

CARDINAL MANNING HOUSE OF PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

Located in the Los Feliz area of Los Angeles, the Cardinal Timothy Manning House of Prayer for Priests provides a spiritual oasis for priests with accommodations surrounded by lush greenery.

The newly renovated building, Villa San Giuseppe, offers 15 additional guest rooms, three meeting rooms, a large living room and a serene chapel for prayerful reflection.

Priests are invited to sit and pray with the Good Shepherd in the meditation garden at the Villa.

Set in the Los Feliz area of Los Angeles near Griffith Park, the Cardinal Timothy Manning House of Prayer for Priests opened in 1976 under the guidance and inspiration of Cardinal Timothy Manning and Jesuit Father John McNulty. It was their vision that there be a special place exclusively for priests to nourish their spiritual lives and to pray for the people whom they serve.

In 1995, Cardinal Roger Mahony expanded and rededicated the House of Prayer to serve a larger number of priests. In honor of his predecessor, Cardinal Mahony officially renamed the new facility the Cardinal Timothy Manning House of Prayer for Priests.

Today, the House of Prayer offers retreats (individually directed, preached and private), spiritual direction, days of recollection, daily Sacrament of Reconciliation, as well as providing a place for priests' support groups to meet. The facility consists of three primary buildings: McNulty Hall (the original house), Bethany (which houses the guest units), and Emmaus (the main building).

Msgr. Jack Stoeger currently serves as Director, and Jesuit Father Christopher Cartwright is Associate Director. The following Spiritual Directors serve one day a week: Father Jim Clarke (Monday, Eng/Sp), Msgr. Lorenzo Miranda (Tuesday, Eng/Sp), Missionary of the Holy Spirit Father Eugenio Cárdenas (Wednesday, Eng/Sp), and Benedictine Father Joseph Brennan (Thursday, Eng). The Sacrament of Reconciliation is available weekdays from 11 am to noon.

For nearly 30 years the Order of St. Gregory the Great has committed to the Cardinal Timothy Manning House of Prayer for Priests, taking it on as its apostolate. Their gracious involvement and generosity in supporting the House of Prayer's mission of reflection, renewal and direction continues to be an integral part of the House of Prayer's continued success.

PRIESTS SERVING THE ARCHDIOCESE

The following pages contain photographs of Archdiocesan and Religious Order priests serving in various ministries throughout the five Pastoral Regions. Included are some retired priests and those on active ministry in other countries. Some recent photos were unavailable for this year's directory. The year of ordination is listed under each photo. Each priest is also listed in the Telephone Index for parish and contact information.
(List is current through July 2021)

On June 5, 2021 Archbishop José Gomez ordained eight new priests for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles at the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels. The Class of 2021 began their first assignments on July 1, as parish life gradually resumes around the archdiocese following a year of closures, outdoor sacraments, and social distancing. The eight ordained priests (and their parish assignments) are Frs. Patrick Ayala-Garcia (Santa Clara Church, Oxnard); Cesar Guardado (St. Emydius Church, Lynwood); Andrew Hedstrom (Holy Family Church, South Pasadena); Sergio Hidalgo (Santa Rosa Church, San Fernando); Francis Kim (St. Mel Church, Woodland Hills); Jihoon Kim (St. Kateri Tekawitha Church, Santa Clarita); Michael Masteller (St. Helen Church, South Gate); and Matthew Miguel (Our Lady of the Assumption Church, Ventura).

DEACONS SERVING THE ARCHDIOCESE

Diaconate Office – Director: Deacon Shane Cuda (213) 637-7734, email: dnshaneCUDA@la-archdiocese.org
 3424 Wilshire Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90010-2241; web: www.la-archdiocese.org/org/deacons

By virtue of their ordination, a sacramental fraternity unites deacons. They form a community that witnesses to Christ: the Deacon-Servant. “Each deacon should have a sense of being joined with his fellow deacons in a bond of charity, prayer, obedience to their bishop, ministerial zeal and collaboration”

– National Directory for the Formation, Ministry, and Life of Permanent Deacons in the United States

The Permanent Diaconate was restored, after the Second Vatican Council, as a Sacred Order by Motu Proprio of Pope Paul VI in 1968. Cardinal Timothy Manning ordained the first class of 17 permanent deacons on June 7, 1975 for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. At the latest ordination, Archbishop José Gomez ordained 16 men to the permanent diaconate on June 12, 2021 at the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels. Deacons serve in a variety of ministries in a majority of more than 240 parishes and missions in the five pastoral regions of the Archdiocese. As of July 1, there are 416 permanent deacons serving in the Los Angeles Archdiocese (with 390 in active assignment and 32 retired).

Held on the fourth Friday at Mission San Gabriel, "Sanctitas" was begun in 2020 as a way to provide adoration and confession for young adults during the COVID pandemic. It was a creation of Sr. Maria Goretti, a Franciscan Sister of the Poor of Jesus Christ, who teamed up with Fr. Matthew Wheeler (Associate Pastor of St. Anthony, San Gabriel) and Jennifer Havey (Coordinator of Spiritual Renewal for the San Gabriel Region).
