A Historic First for Mission San Buenaventura

By Pablo Kay, Angelus Editor-in-Chief

When Fr. Tom Elewaut, pastor of Mission San Buenaventura, saw the name on his phone's caller ID the night of June 30, 2020, he guessed the call had something to do with the recent controversy over whether to remove the statue of St. Junípero Serra in front of Ventura's City Hall.

"I've got some good news," said Archbishop José Gomez on the other end of the line. "You're a minor basilica."

Fr. Elewaut's voice started to crack with emotion. He had spent the last six years researching, praying and waiting for Pope Francis to decide whether to elevate his 238-year-old parish to the rank of "minor basilica."

Two weeks later, on July 15, 2020, the feast of the mission's namesake, St. Bonaventure, the pope's decision was made public. At a special 7:30 a.m. Mass celebrated by Archbishop Gomez, along with Fr. Elewaut and Regional Auxiliary Bishop Robert Barron, Mission Basilica San Buenaventura was unveiled as a minor basilica for the Los Angeles Archdiocese and the 88th in the United States.

"When the pope designates a basilica, it means this is holy ground, that something beautiful and important in the history of salvation happened here," Archbishop Gomez said at the Mass, held outside in the mission's garden due to restrictions on outdoor religious services mandated by California Gov. Gavin Newsom just two days earlier in light of the recent spike in coronavirus (COVID-19) cases in the state.

St. Junípero had planned to establish San Buenaventura as the third mission in Alta California but was forced to wait more than a decade before receiving approval.

When the mission was eventually founded, on Easter Sunday, March 31, 1782, St. Junípero alluded to the fact that it took the Church more than 200 years after Bonaventure's death to declare him a saint.

And in many ways, this could also characterize the nearly 45 years it took for St. Bonaventure's mission to be named a basilica.

A bumpy road to 'basilica'

The pursuit to get Rome to recognize San Buenaventura as a basilica began in 1976, when the Vatican gave then-Cardinal Timothy Manning approval to solemnly consecrate the mission's 167-year-old church building.

Msgr. Francis J. Weber, one of the eminent historians of the Church in the United States who was then the administrator of the mission, suggested that the mission seek a further honor from Rome.

St. Pope Paul VI had just granted minor basilica designation to Mission San Diego of Alcalá, the first mission St. Junípero established in 1769. Msgr. Weber felt it only fitting that St. Junípero's last mission enjoy that same status.

But soon after Cardinal Manning submitted the three-page application, it came back from Rome denied. Despite Msgr. Weber's request that he make a second attempt, Cardinal Manning decided not to push the issue any further.

The idea of making San Buenaventura a basilica was not given serious thought again until 2011, when Fr. Elewaut arrived as the mission's new pastor. He started going through the parish records and came across Msgr. Weber's original application.

Pastor Fr. Thomas Elewaut

The new pastor approached Archbishop Gomez and, after some consultation, in 2014 he gave Fr. Elewaut the green light to start the process anew.

As befitting a former high school principal, Fr. Elewaut spent the next four years studying and researching, building his case for the mission's pastoral and historical importance.

His research complete, in 2018, the application was submitted to the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments in Rome.

Later that same year, the application came back rejected – again. In its denial, the Vatican cited what Fr. Elewaut described as a pair of liturgical "faux pas" that he had made to accommodate the building's limited space. He had placed the baptismal font in the sanctuary, "a liturgical no-no" for Rome, as he put it. Also frowned upon by Rome was his positioning of the presider's chair in front of the altar, instead of off to the side.

Fr. Elewaut dutifully made the required changes and sent a new application to Rome. On June 30, the vigil of St. Junípero's feast day, the mission's pastor received the news he had spent years praying for.

What changes now?

In making a church a basilica, the pope declares the church to be one of his own. There are just over 1,800 minor basilicas in the world, and before the July 15 announcement, 87 in the whole United States, and six in the state of California.

For Bishop Barron, the announcement had a special significance. Five years ago, two months after St. Junípero's canonization, he was installed as episcopal vicar for the Santa Barbara region of the Los Angeles Archdiocese in a Mass celebrated at Mission San Buenaventura.

The designation, Bishop Barron explained, binds San Buenaventura to the four major basilicas of the mother Church in Rome: St. John Lateran, St. Peter, St. Mary Major, and St. Paul Outside the Walls.

Now that Mission San Buenaventura is a basilica, it will receive a series of symbolic "upgrades": a cone-shaped canopy, known as an ombrellino, will now be placed above the church's lectern; a bell mounted on a pole, known as the "tintinnabulum," similar to that used during the Middle Ages to signal the pope's approach, will now be used in parish processions; and the insignia of the Papal Cross Keys will appear in banners, signs, and over the mission's doors.

The faithful will also now be able to obtain a plenary indulgence, which removes the temporal punishment due to sins, on predetermined "basilican feast days."

What's next?

The change in status comes at a difficult time for the mission on multiple fronts.

On the day the new basilica designation was to be announced, the Ventura City Council voted to remove a St. Junípero statue from in front of City Hall. And the weekend before the announcement, an overnight fire ravaged Mission San Gabriel Arcángel. While the cause of the blaze is still under investigation, many see its timing – on the same weekend that saw several acts of anti-Catholic vandalism around the country – as suspicious.

Two days prior to the announcement, California's governor ordered houses of worship to cease indoor gatherings for the foreseeable future as part of a statewide reclosure amid a spike in coronavirus infections.

The governor's announcement left Fr. Elewaut and parish staff scrambling to transform the mission's garden into a liturgical space to celebrate the first Mass at the newly named basilica.

Once the pandemic passes, Fr. Elewaut looks forward to hosting a larger, more festive celebration to mark the milestone.

"The famous words of St. Junípero Serra were 'always forward, never back,' " he said on the night before the celebration Mass. "All of these missions have had destructive things happen at one time or another, whether it's earthquakes, or fires, or even pandemics, and yet they keep enduring and keep going forward – that's what we do."

Coat of Arms

Pope Francis has kept his episcopal coat of arms and motto for his pontificate, adding the bishop's miter and the keys of St. Peter. The silver miter has three gold stripes to mirror order, jurisdiction and magisterium, and a vertical gold band connects the three stripes in the middle to indicate their unity in the same person. The papal emblem uses a gold key to represent the power in heaven and a silver key to indicate the spiritual authority of the papacy on earth. The red cord that unites the two keys alludes to the bond between the two powers.

The dark blue shield is divided into three sections. On the top is the official seal of the Society of Jesus; the symbol shows a blazing yellow sun inside with the red letters, IHS, the sign for the name of Jesus. A red cross rises up from the letter H and three black nails rest below. The bottom part of the shield depicts an eight-pointed gold star representing Mary and the buds of a spikenard flower representing St. Joseph. The papal motto inscribed on a white, red-edged banner underneath the shield is the Latin phrase "Miserando atque eligendo," literally, "by having mercy, by choosing him," relating to the call of St. Matthew, the tax collector.

On Wednesday, March 13, 2013, the Jesuit Cardinal Jorge Bergoglio was elected as the 266th Pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church and chose the papal name Francis to honor Saint Francis of Assisi. He succeeded Pope Benedict XVI who resigned after nearly eight years. Jorge Mario Bergoglio was born on December 17, 1936 in Buenos Aires, growing up in the working-class neighborhood of Barrio de Flores, son of an Italian immigrant railway worker and a homemaker. Even after a case of severe pneumonia and the partial removal of his right lung, he entered the Jesuit novitiate, and on December 13, 1969 he was ordained a priest for the Society of Jesus (the Jesuits). After serving as a teacher, and in posts as novice master and provincial superior, in 1992 he was appointed as Auxiliary Bishop of Buenos Aires. Five years later, he was appointed Coadjutor Archbishop and on February 28, 1998 he succeeded Cardinal Antonio Quarracino as Archbishop of Buenos Aires. On February 21, 2001 he was elevated to Cardinal. On Tuesday, March 19, 2013, he was installed as Pope. Francis is the first Jesuit pope, the first pope from the Americas and the Southern Hemisphere, and the first choosing the name Francis. He is fluent in Spanish and Italian, and conversant in Latin, German, French, and English. He is an accomplished theologian and has written books on spirituality and meditation.

Coat of Arms

Archbishop Gomez's Coat of Arms contains on the left side the shield of the Archdiocese with three sets of angels' wings, each guarding a golden rose. The roses symbolize the Blessed Mother and the angels' wings represent the City of Our Lady of the Angels.

The right side of the shield contains the Archbishop's personal arms. It contains a design based on the arms of his home, the City of Monterrey in Mexico. It is composed of a silver field that depicts the mountains outside the city with peaks that resemble a "saddle." A red sunburst peers from behind the green mountains.

In the upper left corner is a red rosebud with green stem and leaves. The rose is a traditional symbol of Our Lady of Guadalupe and is also associated with events in the life of St. Josemaria Escriva, founder of Opus Dei. The blue star opposite the rose signifies that the Blessed Virgin Mary has been designated as the Star of the New Evangelization at the beginning of the third millennium and it also represents the state of Texas which was his home for 14 years as a priest and then five years as Archbishop of San Antonio.

For his motto, Archbishop Gomez adopted the phrase "Adeamus cum fiducia ad thronum gratiae" from Hebrews 4:16, "Let us go forth with confidence to the throne of grace." The joining of the arms of the Archdiocese with Archbishop Gomez's personal arms signifies the spiritual union of a Bishop with his See.

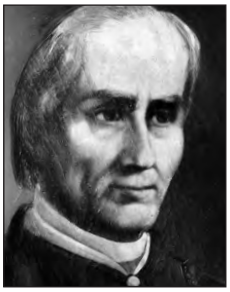
History of the Ordinaries of the Archdiocese

Bishop Francisco Garcia Diego y Moreno, O.F.M.
1840-1846
Bishop of Diocese of Both Californias

Born September 17, 1785 in Lagos, Mexico; a member of the Order of Friars Minor, Franciscan; died April 30, 1846 in Santa Barbara (age 60); buried in sanctuary of Santa Barbara Mission.

The beginning of Catholicism in California dates from the early explorations of Juan Cabrillo in 1542 and Sebastian Vizcaino in 1602 and the priests who accompanied these explorers.The actual founding of El Pueblo de Nuestra Señora la Reina de Los Ángeles occurred in 1781. By 1840 Pope Gregory XVI established a hierarchy in California and named Franciscan Friar Francisco Garcia Diego y Moreno as the first bishop of the gigantic Diocese of Both Californias, which extended from the Oregon line to all of Baja California. He was ordained as bishop at the National Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico and opened the first seminary on the Pacific Coast. Bishop Moreno served the new diocese for six years.



Bishop Joseph Sadoc Alemany y Conill, O.P.
1850-1853
Bishop of Diocese of Monterey

Born July 13, 1814 in Vich, Spain; a member of the Order of Preachers, Dominican; died April 14, 1888 in Valencia, Spain (age 73); buried in Holy Cross Mausoleum in Colma, California.

After the death of Bishop Garcia, Father Gonzalez Rubio headed the diocese for four years as interim administrator. In 1849 the see officially became the Diocese of Monterey. Two years later, California became a state and Pope Pius IX named Dominican Father Joseph Sadoc Alemany, who was the provincial of the Dominicans in the United States, as bishop of the Monterey Diocese. In 1853 he was named the first Archbishop of San Francisco and peninsular California (Baja) was separated. He headed the Archdiocese until 1884 when he returned to Spain and died there in 1888. One of his achievements in the Diocese was the establishment of the first school for girls in 1851 under the direction of the Dominican Sisters.

Bishop Thaddeus Amat y Brusi, C.M.
1853-1878
Bishop of Diocese of Monterey (1853-1859)
Bishop of Monterey-Los Angeles (1859-1878)

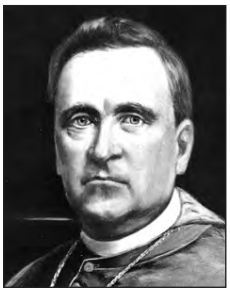
Born December 31, 1810 in Barcelona, Spain; member of Congregation of the Mission, Vincentian; died May 12, 1878 in Los Angeles (age 67); buried in the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels, Los Angeles.

The Metropolitan See of San Francisco, in 1853, separated into smaller dioceses. The Holy See then appointed Vincentian Father Thaddeus Amat as the new Bishop of Monterey, that then extended from San Jose south to the Mexican border. He first established his residence at Santa Barbara, and Rome approved the move to Los Angeles in 1859 when the diocese was officially named Monterey-Los Angeles. He represented the diocese at the First Vatican Council (1869-70), established parochial schools and erected St. Vibiana Cathedral in 1876. Bishop Amat also brought the first orders of nuns to the city: Sisters of Charity and Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Bishop Francisco Mora y Borrell
1878-1896
Bishop of Diocese of Monterey-Los Angeles

Born November 25, 1827 in Catalonia, Spain; died August 3, 1905 in Spain (age 77); buried in the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels, Los Angeles.

In 1863 Francisco Mora was named rector, and later became Vicar-General, of the Church of Our Lady Queen of Angels, "La Placita," located in the oldest part of downtown Los Angeles. Bishop Amat consecrated him a bishop in 1873 with the right of succession. Bishop Mora then headed the Diocese of Monterey-Los Angeles (75,984 square miles) in 1878 and for 18 years worked tirelessly to establish 72 parishes while facing many legal battles against the church. In 1895 he welcomed The Catholic Tidings, the first Catholic newspaper for the diocese. He resigned in 1896 and returned to Spain where he died in 1905. In 1962 his body was re-entombed in the Bishops' Chapel at Calvary Mausoleum in East Los Angeles.



Bishop George T. Montgomery
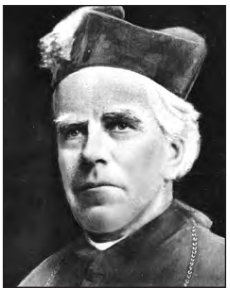
Bishop of Diocese of Monterey-Los Angeles

Born December 30, 1847 in Davis County, Kentucky; died January 10, 1907 in San Francisco (age 59); buried in Holy Cross Mausoleum in Colma, California.

Bishop Montgomery was born in Kentucky, the first native American head of the diocese, ordained a priest in 1879 and consecrated a bishop in 1894. He assisted in the administration of the diocese as coadjutor because of Bishop Mora's failing health and assumed complete administration of the Diocese of Monterey-Los Angeles in 1896. During his seven years as bishop, he faced serious bigotry but proved himself a great civic leader and dynamic churchman. In 1903 he was named coadjutor, with right of succession, to Archbishop Patrick Riordan of San Francisco. He served as archbishop for four years and died there in 1907, mourned by Catholics and non-Catholics throughout the state.



Bishop Thomas J. Conaty
1903-1915
Bishop of Diocese of Monterey-Los Angeles

Born August 1, 1847 in County Cavan, Ireland; died September 18, 1915 in Coronado, California (age 68); buried in the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels, Los Angeles.

Bishop Conaty had just completed a six-year term as rector of The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., when he was appointed head of the See of Monterey-Los Angeles. One of his major interests was Catholic education and preserving the California Missions. He organized the St. Vincent de Paul Society and, in 1904, acquired The Tidings as the official diocesan publication. During Bishop Conaty's episcopate, the total population doubled, priests numbered 229 and many new orders of Sisters were serving the diocese in education, hospitals and orphanages. When he died in 1915, the Catholic population had grown to 178,000, three times the number when he came to the diocese.

Bishop/Archbishop John J. Cantwell
1917-1947
Bishop of Diocese of Monterey-Los Angeles (1917-1922)
Bishop of Diocese of Los Angeles-San Diego (1922-1936)
Archbishop of Archdiocese of Los Angeles (1936-1947)

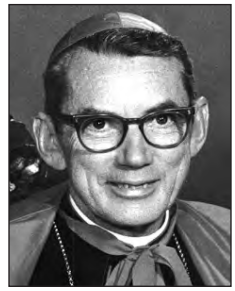
Born December 1, 1874 in Limerick, Ireland, died October 30, 1947 in Los Angeles (age 72); buried in the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels, Los Angeles.

Two major divisions of the Monterey-Los Angeles Diocese occurred during Archbishop Cantwell's 30 years. In 1922 Pope Pius XI approved the division of the 90,000-square-mile diocese and created the Diocese of Los Angeles-San Diego. The next major alteration occurred in 1936 with the erection of a second Metropolitan District in California at Los Angeles, with the four southernmost counties comprising the Diocese of San Diego. He became the first archbishop, noted for his provisions for the spiritual and material welfare of non-English speaking people, and created 50 Hispanic parishes and missions.

Cardinal Archbishop James Francis McIntyre
1948-1970
Archbishop of Archdiocese of Los Angeles

Born June 25, 1886 in New York City; died July 16, 1979 in Los Angeles (age 93); buried in the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels, Los Angeles.

Cardinal McIntyre was an auxiliary bishop of the Archdiocese of New York for six years before his appointment to Los Angeles. Just five years after the appointment, in 1952, Pope Pius XII elevated him to the rank of cardinal, the first cardinal in the western United States. Cardinal McIntyre served during a period of incredible growth and expansion. Between 1948 and 1963, 82 parishes were added and Catholic schools more than doubled from 147 to 347, about one a month for 15 years. A tremendous wave of immigration brought an influx of Chinese, Japanese, Vietnamese, Koreans and other Asiatic groups as well as a rise of Hispanics and African-Americans in the Church. This period also witnessed several upheavals within the Church, including the Second Vatican Council and the exodus of many women religious from their communities.



Cardinal Archbishop Timothy Manning
1970-1985
Archbishop of Archdiocese of Los Angeles

Born November 15, 1909 in County Cork, Ireland; died June 23, 1989 in Los Angeles (age 79); buried in Calvary Cemetery, East Los Angeles.

Cardinal Manning served as auxiliary bishop in Los Angeles from 1946 to 1967, before being named as bishop of Fresno. In 1970 Coadjutor Archbishop Manning acceded to the See as the third Archbishop of Los Angeles and three years later became the second cardinal of the largest city in the world dedicated to Our Blessed Mother. For 15 years the Irish-born prelate prevailed through enormous changes in the Church aided by four auxiliary bishops for the three counties (Los Angeles, Santa Barbara and Ventura); in 1976 Orange County was separated into the Diocese of Orange. Cardinal Manning ordained the first permanent deacon class for the archdiocese in 1975 and by the end of his episcopate the Catholic population was close to 2.5 million. As bishop, he confirmed over 650,000 young people.

Archdiocesan Golden Jubilarians for 2020

IN THE YEAR 1970, 83-year-old Cardinal James Francis McIntyre retired in his 22nd year as Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles and was succeeded by Archbishop Timothy Manning (who would be made a Cardinal in 1973). During Manning's first year, the Archdiocesan Finance Council was established and the Priest Senate was formed.

Archbishop Manning ordained the 1970 class members of St. John's Seminary on May 23 in St. Vibiana Cathedral. Three of the original members of that class are Golden Jubilarians this year.

Following are brief summaries of the Jubilarians' years of ministry in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles.

2020 Cardinal's Awards Recipients

Each year, typically five members from the Los Angeles Catholic community – one from each pastoral region – who have extensive and distinguished records of service are recipients of the Cardinal's Award. On Saturday, February 29, 2020, Archbishop José H. Gomez recognized these honorees at the Awards Dinner held at the Beverly Hilton Hotel. The 2020 honorees bring to 157 the number of men and women (not all Catholic) honored with the award since 1990.

Mollie Baumer

Growing up at St. John Fisher Church in Rancho Palos Verdes, Mollie Baumer saw her parents conduct Marriage Encounter outreach and become friends with incoming Pastor Fr. Peter Banks at St. Lawrence of Brindisi Church in Watts. Today, Mollie has served more than 10 years on the non-profit Friends of St. Lawrence-Watts board, which Fr. Banks founded, helping fund elementary and high school scholarships. Her support of the non-profit St. Sebastian Sports Project, which helps under-served inner-city Catholic athletic programs, led her and daughter Delany to be a liaison for St. Raphael's Church in South L.A. She is also involved with the Campaign Cabinet for the University of Notre Dame and the Los Angeles Archdiocese's Development Department Advisory Board. Mollie along with husband John and three children are members of American Martyrs Church in Manhattan Beach.

Michelle Chandler

After earning degrees at USC and UC Santa Barbara, Michelle Chandler taught high school English for five years before creating an internet curriculum for teachers. Some 10 years after she, her husband Mac, and their now-teenage daughters Cora and Willa all became Catholic converts through RCIA, Michelle now teaches at St. Bede the Venerable in La Cañada Flintridge. Starting with instructing RCIA and helping to start the Adoration ministry, she responded to an invitation of Pastor Msgr. Antonio Cacciapuoti to spearhead local support of important national women's ministry program called Endow and the Challenge Youth Ministry program. It also fostered her outreach on Skid Row with Fr. Peter Devereux, LC. She says: "Teaching is a theme through my whole life and being able to help teach through RCIA, through Endow, with girls in Challenge, it comes naturally and as a source of joy."

Michael Feeley

Michael Feeley has spent 30 years of service to the local and global Catholic community. His volunteer success is in part due to his work as a law partner with Latham & Watkins. His talents and skills have brought measurable good to some organizations, including the California Patrons of the Vatican Arts, the Catholic Schools Collaborative, the Order of Malta, the L.A. Cathedral Finance Council, Loyola and Verbum Dei high schools, and St. Anne's, just to name a few. The skills that he employed throughout his service within the Archdiocese are same skills he shared for the benefit of the people of the Holy Land. This year, he ends a five-year term as the head of the Western Lieutenancy of the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem. Michael is the first spouse of an honoree to be chosen to receive this award. (Janet Feeley was honored in 2014.)

Carlos Herrera

His devotion to his mother, his family and to giving back to his work and faith communities are all hallmarks of Carlos Herrera's life. His migrant family worked in many places; his mother gave him and his siblings love and faith while living among gang influences on the margins of Downtown L.A. From there he drew on the determination instilled by his mother. He created Interior Removal Specialist, Inc., a company that repurposes and recycles reusable materials, many of which are donated to those in need. He also employs those with poor life histories which reconnects him to his roots. He has a passion for non-profits that serve the marginalized in Downtown L.A., including Homeboy Industries, Dolores Mission, and the Good Shephard Center.

Dan Schwala

Growing up on a remote dairy farm in Wisconsin taught Dan Schwala perseverance and a faith-based work ethic of determination. His ability to stay focused comes from time spent at the U.S. Military Academy at West Point in New York. While he had a strong sense of Catholicism, it was reawakened when he joined his wife Denise at RCIA classes. Together, they have embraced Dan's projects, which begin with St. John's Seminary in Camarillo and where he serves as President of the Board. As such he has taken their annual gala from about 400 guests to over 1,000 in just a few years. Dan is also instrumental in the St. Joseph Center's annual "Voices of Hope" gala, and, for over a decade now, has been an anchor for the annual Cardinal's Awards Dinner.

Paul Viviano

An untiring advocate for children, Paul Viviano is CEO of Children's Hospital L.A., the largest regional referral center for children in critical condition who need life-saving care. Knowing how important good nutrition is, he is proud of the removal of the profitable fast food option near the front of the hospital. Today, that space is a chapel, dedicated by Archbishop José Gomez for all faiths. He also enjoys serving as Chairman of the Board of Trustees at Loyola Marymount University. He is dedicated to young adults and to the school that will broaden their education horizons in the Jesuit tradition. In his office, a small plaque on his office desk summarizes him well: "There is no limit to what a man can do or where he can go if he doesn't mind who gets the credit."

THE CARDINAL'S AWARD The Cardinal's Awards Dinner began in the late 1980s when Cardinal Roger Mahony, then-Archbishop of Los Angeles, expressed his interest in celebrating the selfless and talented people of the Archdiocese. The Cardinal's Awards Committee, honorees and beneficiaries represent the five pastoral regions of the Archdiocese. The Awards Dinner has raised more than $15 million to support parishes, schools, institutions and social services, and in 2020, the youth of the Archdiocese. Chancellor Sr. Mary Elizabeth Galt Retires After 17 Years of Service

By Bob Dellinger, Angelus News

Sr. Mary Elizabeth's calling to the classroom and her vocation to religious life were both nurtured at St. Brendan's School in the Hancock Park-area of Los Angeles, which was staffed by the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary (BVM). After graduating from St. Mary's Academy in South L.A. (the campus moved to its present location in Inglewood a few years later), she entered religious life of the "BVMs" right out of high school. Later she went off to study at Mundelein College in Chicago, where she earned a Bachelor of Arts in 1964.

Upon returning to Los Angeles that same year, she started teaching sixth-graders at Our Lady of Lourdes School in Tujunga. After three years, she moved to St. Philip's School in Pasadena teaching other grades. After St. Philip's, she spent a total of 13 years at St. Robert Bellarmine School in Burbank, first as a teacher, then as principal for the last six years.

Next came a one-year international fellowship at the University of Nottingham in England studying curriculum development and comparative education from 1982-1983. Upon returning from England, she served as an elementary school supervisor in the San Fernando Pastoral Region of the archdiocese, where she worked for eight years.

In 1991, she became associate superintendent of all elementary Catholic schools in the archdiocese, and in 2000 was named superintendent of elementary schools.

Gomez's coat of arms at his 2011 Installation Mass. Right: St. Pope John Paul II greets Sr. Galt during a visit to Rome with Cardinal Roger Mahony in 2004.

It was only three years later, in 2003, when then-Cardinal Roger Mahony's vicar general, Msgr. Royale Vadakin, asked her to become the second woman chancellor, replacing Sr. Cecilia Louise Moore.

As chancellor, she was also responsible for collecting all the necessary data from around the archdiocese, including from departments like the Vicar for Clergy's office, the Department of Catholic Schools, and the Office of Religious Education.

"I have always felt respected as a woman religious," she pointed out. "When I was a principal, I felt the pastor respected me. And I felt that even when I was a school supervisor and went out to different schools. And I have to say, I've always felt respected certainly by Cardinal Mahony and now Archbishop Gomez. They always respected my opinion."

"In July I'll be 79, and that's why it's time to retire," Sr. Galt said. "The thing that I would honestly say is I have been totally blessed with a career, a profession – whatever you want to call it – in the archdiocese. I really have been blessed."

Mission Statement - Archdiocese of Los Angeles

We, the People of God of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, humbly accept our mission to continue the redemptive work of Jesus Christ.

Baptized into the Body of Christ, confirmed in the Holy Spirit, and nourished by the Word and Eucharist, we share Christ's mission of priest, prophet and servant.

We affirm our oneness with the Catholic Church throughout the world, in communion with our Holy Father.

With the pastoral leadership of our Archbishop, we collaborate in various ways to live and proclaim the gospel.

Christ announced the Reign of God. As Church, we are the instrument of this reign in the world. We commit ourselves to build a community of faith and love.

With Christ, we bring good news to the poor. We commit ourselves to eliminate the many faces of poverty in our midst – physical, spiritual and moral.

With Christ, we uphold the dignity of human life. We commit ourselves to cherish each person and to be faithful stewards of all God's creation.

With Christ, we affirm the bonds that unite us. We commit ourselves to remove the barriers that divide people in the large, complex and multicultural society of Southern California.

We dedicate our parish communities and our schools, institutions, ministries and organizations to fulfill this mission under the loving patronage of Mary, Queen of Angels.

The building housing the Archdiocesan Catholic Center, located at 3424 Wilshire Blvd (at Mariposa Ave.) in Los Angeles, was built in 1958 for the International Business Machines Corporation (IBM). Thrifty Corporation occupied the building before the Archdiocese took over in 1996.

California Missions

The 21 historic missions are situated in what has become eight of the 10 Dioceses and two Archdioceses of California. They line the coastal route of the Royal Road – El Camino Real – from San Diego to Sonoma. Franciscan Fray Junipero Serra started this trail in 1769, when he founded the first mission in California.

Missions are listed by founding year, with location, diocese, date and founder (and those designated minor basilicas).

1. San Diego de Alcalá – San Diego | San Diego Diocese
   July 16, 1769, by Fray Junipero Serra (1976, named basilica by Pope Paul VI)
2. San Carlos Borromeo de Carmelo – Carmel | Monterey Diocese
   June 3, 1770, by Fray Junipero Serra (1960, named basilica by Pope John XXIII)
3. San Antonio de Padua – Jolon | Monterey Diocese
   July 14, 1771, by Fray Junipero Serra
4. San Gabriel Arcángel – San Gabriel | Los Angeles Archdiocese

Four of the parishes are named for Our Lady of Guadalupe, there are five parochial missions, three cemeteries and seven high schools.

Saint Pope John Paul II visited the mission during his trip to L.A. in 1987. The Archdiocesan Archival Center and museum are on the mission grounds.

There are two other retreat centers in addition to St. Andrew's Abbey (the Benedictine monastery and retreat center), the only abbey in the archdiocese. The region has 11 high schools and seven parochial missions.

Eight Eastern Catholic churches are in the region – Armenian, Assyrian Chaldean, Byzantine, Coptic, Melkite Greek, Syriac and Syro-Malibar.

There are 67 parishes in the region, located among 35 cities. The San Pedro Region is the only one that also includes an island parish – St. Catherine of Alexandria, established in 1902 on Santa Catalina Island. The oldest parish in the region is Sts. Peter and Paul in Wilmington, established in 1865.

Ethnic Masses are celebrated in Spanish, Vietnamese, Tagalog, Portuguese, Chinese, Croatian and Italian.

Eastern Catholic churches include Russian-Greek, Melkite Greek, Armenian and Antiochene Syriac.

Eight high schools are in the region, plus one retreat center and one cemetery. San Pedro area is the site of the first Spanish land grant in California, granted in 1784 by King Carlos II to Juan Jose Dominguez.

Eastern Catholic Churches

The Eastern Catholic Churches, also historically known as the Eastern-rite Catholic Churches, are 23 Eastern Christian churches in full communion with the Pope in Rome, as part of the worldwide Catholic Church. Headed by patriarchs, metropolitans and major archbishops, the Eastern Catholic Churches are governed in accordance with the Code of Canons of the Eastern Churches, each church with its own canons and laws in addition. The total membership of the various churches accounts for about 16 million, thus making up about 1.5 percent of the Catholic Church, with the rest of its more than 1.2 billion members belonging to the (Western) Latin Church. Full communion constitutes mutual sacramental sharing between the Eastern Catholic Churches and the Latin Church, including Eucharistic intercommunion.

Parish Life Directors & Pastoral Associates

Parish Life Office: 3424 Wilshire Blvd, L.A. 90010-2241 (213) 637-7533; web: www.lacatholics.org/parish-life

Vatican II reminded us of the ancient understanding of the priesthood of all the baptized. It is through our baptism that we are all called to participate in the apostolic work of the Church. More recently, in 1983, the Code of Canon Law was revised and now includes a provision that "in the case of a lack of priests," pastoral care can be done by someone other than a priest (517.2).1n the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, Cardinal Roger Mahony anticipated such a time when, in April1997, he directed his Leadership Team to form a study group to look at the feasibility of a new ministry, that of "Pastoral Associate." A year later, following publication of a draft document describing the role of a Pastoral Associate, a pilot program was approved.

In 1999, the Department for Pastoral Associates was established, the predecessor to the Office of Parish Life. On Holy Thursday of 2000, the Cardinal issued the document, "As I Have Done for You," in which he affirmed lay ecclesial ministry. The Cardinal described lay ecclesial ministry as "a vocation of full time Church service in response to the needs of each local community ... a unique vocation in the Church, a call to service in the name of the Church ... exercised in a stable, public, recognized, and authorized way." The first group of Pastoral Associates for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles was commissioned by the Cardinal in 2003.

Nationally, other important events related to the development of lay ecclesial ministry have occurred. In 2000, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops issued the document, "Called and Gifted: The American Catholic Laity," which notes that "since the Second Vatican Council new opportunities have developed for lay men and women in the Church" (no. 7). In 2005, the USCCB released "Co-Workers in the Vineyard, a Resource for Guiding the Development of Lay Ecclesial Ministry," which "expresses our strong desire for the fruitful collaboration of ordained and lay ministers who, in distinct but complimentary ways, continue in the Church the saving mission of Christ for the world" (no. 6).1n November 2011, the bishops approved an updated version of the National Certification Standards for Lay Ecclesial Ministers.

We have arrived at a time when we do not always have a priest available to serve the needs of the people of God. Simultaneously, we have witnessed the growing phenomenon of lay men and women discerning a call to serve the Church in a professional capacity, equipping themselves to do so through prayer, formation, education and training. The Office of Parish Life helps those preparing for service as Parish Life Directors and Pastoral Associates.

Parish Life Directors

Parish Life Directors and Parish Life Deacons serve as the spiritual and administrative leader in a parish where there is not a priest pastor. A Priest Moderator, the canonical pastor of the parish, is available for advice and counsel. A Parish Life Director works with a Priest Minister who is responsible for the sacramental life of the parish. It is preferred that a Parish Life Director be a commissioned Pastoral Associate with several years of experience serving the diocese in that role before becoming a Parish Life Director.

Pastoral Associates

A Pastoral Associate is a generalist in ministry who works collaboratively with a priest pastor to serve the needs of the parish. The Pastoral Associate's ministry will vary from one parish to another depending upon the direction of the pastor, the specific needs of the parish, the gifts and talents of the Pastoral Associate, and the other staff resources available.

A brief history of St. John's Seminary

On March 3, 1927, the Board of Diocesan Seminary Trustees for Los Angeles accepted an offer from Don Juan Camarillo (1867-1936) of 100 acres on a hill terrace overlooking a small farming community in Ventura County as the site for a future seminary. The economic crisis at the time slowed fundraising efforts, but through the generous contributions of the people of the diocese, Archbishop John J. Cantwell (1917-1947) announced the building of the seminary on January 14, 1938. By August, ground was broken; and on September 12, 1939, St. John's Seminary opened its doors to 70 candidates for the priesthood.

Archbishop Cantwell entrusted the administration of the seminary to the Vincentian Fathers and named its first rector, Fr. William P. Barr, C.M. (1939-1949), along with 10 faculty members. Further construction brought completion of the seminary chapel and its solemn consecration by the Archbishop on October 8, 1939. Just a year later, on October 14, 1940, the Apostolic Delegate, Archbishop Amleto Cicognoni, dedicated the Edward L. Doheny Memorial Library. St. John's Seminary received its first accreditation from the Western College Association in 1951. The increased number of candidates in the six-year academic program required Cardinal James Francis McIntyre to complete a long-planned expansion of the seminary. In 1956, a student recreation hall, additional classrooms, and a new dormitory dedicated to St. Thomas Aquinas were added.

It was Fr. William Kenneally, C.M. (1958-1967) who supervised the construction of St. John's Seminary College, which began operations on the crest of the hill above the theologate. With the opening of the college came the four-year philosophy and theology programs, and the college was now empowered to grant a Master of Arts degree. The Theology and College Divisions remained under the same administration until 1966, when Very Rev. Louis J. Franz, C.M. (1966-1970) was named the first Rector of the College.

From 1962 to 2003, the Seminary College provided undergraduate education in philosophy and liberal arts. Due to low enrollment, the College division was closed in May 2003, and a Pre-Theology program was inaugurated. The Carrie Estelle Doheny Memorial Library (Philosophy Library) functions as the Pre-Theology Center.

Under the leadership of Fr. John Grindel, C.M. (1973-1978), the Theology Division received its initial accreditation in 1976 from the Association of Theological Schools (ATS) in the United States and Canada. Fr. Charles Miller, C.M. (1978-1987) served until Cardinal Roger Mahony named Msgr. George H. Neiderauer (1987-1992), the first in a succession of diocesan priest rectors: Under the leadership of Msgr. Jeremiah McCarthy (1994-2001), a grant from the Lilly Foundation provided for technological renovation of the seminary classrooms; Under the leadership of Msgr. Helmut A. Hefner, J.C.L. (2001-2007) the seminary initiated a strategic plan and refurbished the seminary's entrance and chapel courtyard. In May 2003, the seminary inaugurated a Master's in Pastoral Ministry, which added lay ministers support.

During the service of Msgr. Craig A. Cox as Rector (2007-2014), the seminary received reaccreditation for maximum terms from the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) and ATS. In addition, the St. Mary and St. Thomas Dormitories were remodeled and other improvements to programs and facilities were undertaken. Msgr. Marc V. Trudeau (2014-2018) was rector during the Seminary's 75th anniversary of its founding in September 2014. It was on July 1, 2018 that Archbishop José Gomez appointed Fr. Marco A. Durazo, S.T.D. (2018-present) to serve as the 14th rector of St. John's Seminary.

Catholic Charities has helped supply the basic necessities of life to the most impoverished residents of Los Angeles since 1919. It strives to find permanent solutions to crisis situations by offering clients the tools and resources they need to achieve greater self-reliance and stability in their lives. Services are provided regardless of race, ethnicity, gender, age or religious belief.

To most effectively manage the delivery of services, the agency is divided into five areas that coincide with the Pastoral Regions of the Archdiocese. This enables Catholic Charities to maintain a presence in communities with the greatest needs while sharing common resources and administrative overhead.

Office of Marriage & Family Life

Director: Joan Vienna Office: 3424 Wilshire Blvd. L.A. 90010-2241 (213) 637-7227 FAX (213) 637-6681; web: www.la-archdiocese.org/org/familylife

The Synod Fathers emphasized that Christian families, by the grace of the sacrament of matrimony, are the principal agents of the family apostolate, above all through "their joy-filled witness as domestic churches." The Church wishes, with humility and compassion, to reach out to families and "to help each family to discover the best way to overcome any obstacles it encounters" (Pope Francis, Amoris Laetitia [The Joy of Love], #227). It is not enough to show generic concern for the family in pastoral planning. Enabling families to take up their role as active agents of the family apostolate calls for "an effort at evangelization and catechesis inside the family" (#228). The Office of Marriage & Family Life answers Pope Francis' call by offering support to married couples, widowed, divorced and separated families with the following programs and resources:

MARRIAGE PREPARATION

Classes: One-day Saturday or evening classes are designed to prepare engaged couples for marriage. They will discuss topics such as Family of Origin, Communication, Finance and Intimacy to learn more about themselves and each other as they prepare to make a lifelong commitment to each other in the Catholic Church. English: (213) 637-7250, email: cmetoyer@la-archdiocese.org; Spanish: (213) 637-7561, email: gvillalobos@la-archdiocese.org; web: www.archla.org/marriageprep.

THERAPIST REFERRAL DIRECTORY: The Referral Directory contains the names and information of therapists who are in private practice or are part of a larger group or clinic. Each therapist is either Catholic or Christian and has agreed to uphold the teachings of the Catholic Church. For more information, call (213) 637-7398.

NATURAL FAMILY PLANNING: Instruction for couples who want a sound, proven method of family planning approved by the Catholic Church that will help them grow in harmony and sanctity in their relationships. English: (213) 637-7250; email: cmetoyer@la-archdiocese.org; Spanish: (213) 637-7561, email: gvillalobos@la-archdiocese.org; web: www.archla.org/marriageprep.

MINISTRY TO SEPARATED & DIVORCED CATHOLICS

Support groups and seminars are designed to help the divorced during this stressful experience. It includes an annual Mass for separated and divorced that is celebrated each year as a time of prayer and thanksgiving for the support and love of God, family, friends and church. English: (213) 637-7249.

NAIM ORGANIZATION FOR WIDOWS AND WIDOWERS: Named after the biblical story of the widow of NAIM, this ministry provides spiritual, social and peer support to Catholic widows and widowers through special seminars, retreats and activities. English: (213) 637-7228; Spanish: (213) 637-7561, (323) 262-2515.

Office of Safeguard the Children

Children's Programs: Sr. Mary Anncarla Costello, S.N.D., Chancellor (213) 637-7460; web: www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting

The Office of Safeguard the Children is dedicated to protecting all of God's children by fully implementing Article 12 of the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People adopted by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops in 2002. The Office provides ongoing support, education, training and resources to help prevent child sexual abuse and to address children's safety issues.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN PARISH COMMITTEES: These committees are the foundation of the Archdiocese's efforts to protect children and young people. The Safeguard the Children Parish Committees work to educate staff, volunteers, parents, children and youth, and provide resources on child sexual abuse prevention and safety for all God's children; email: jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

VIRTUS© "Protecting All God's Children Adult Awareness Sessions": A three-hour training session that helps clergy, staff, volunteers and parents understand the facts and myths about child sexual abuse. Adults learn five steps to keep children safe. Contact: Joan Vienna, email: jvienna@la-archdiocese.org; web: www.virtus.org/virtus.

CHILD SEXUAL ABUSE PREVENTION RESOURCES: The Office provides a variety of resources, including: Safeguard the Children Parish Committee Handbook; Teaching Touching Safety Parent Guide; Child Abuse Prevention Month Campaign Materials; and other resources to help caring adults to protect our children and young people.

EMPOWERING GOD'S CHILDREN & YOUNG PEOPLE©: A K-12 program that is a vehicle through which parents, teachers, catechists and youth ministers give children and young people the tools they need to protect themselves from those who might harm them. (213) 637-7479.

Cardinal Manning House of Prayer for Priests

Located in the Los Feliz area of Los Angeles, the Cardinal Timothy Manning House of Prayer for Priests provides a spiritual oasis for priests with accommodations surrounded by lush greenery.

One of three chapels on the property, the Celebration Chapel is the primary gathering place for prayer and Eucharist.

Set in the Los Feliz area of Los Angeles near Griffith Park, the Cardinal Timothy Manning House of Prayer for Priests opened in 1975 under the guidance and inspiration of Cardinal Timothy Manning and Jesuit Father John McAnulty. It was their vision that there be a special place exclusively for priests to nourish their spiritual lives and to pray for the people whom they serve.

In 1995, Cardinal Roger Mahony expanded and rededicated the House of Prayer to serve a larger number of priests. In honor of his predecessor, Cardinal Mahony officially renamed the new facility the Cardinal Timothy Manning House of Prayer for Priests.

Today, the House of Prayer offers retreats (individually directed, preached and private), spiritual direction, days of recollection, daily Sacrament of Reconciliation, as well as providing a place for priests' support groups to meet. The facility consists of three primary buildings: McAnulty Hall (the original house), Bethany (which houses the guest units), and Emmaus (the main building).

Msgr. Jack Stoeger currently serves as Director, and Jesuit Father Christopher Cartwright is the Associate Director. The following Spiritual Directors serve one day a week: Father Jim Clarke (Monday, Eng/Sp), Msgr. Lorenzo Miranda (Tuesday, Eng/Sp), Missionary of the Holy Spirit Father Eugenio Cárdenas (Wednesday, Eng/Sp), and Benedictine Father Joseph Brennan (Thursday, Eng).

For nearly 20 years the Order of St. Gregory the Great has committed to the Cardinal Timothy Manning House of Prayer for Priests, taking it on as its apostolate. Their gracious involvement and generosity in supporting the House of Prayer's mission of reflection, renewal and direction continues to be an integral part of the House of Prayer's continued success.

Deacons Serving the Archdiocese

Diaconate Office – Director: Deacon Shane Cuda (213) 637-7734, email: dnshanecuda@la-archdiocese.org
3424 Wilshire Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90010-2241; web: www.la-archdiocese.org/org/deacons

By virtue of their ordination, a sacramental fraternity unites deacons. They form a community that witnesses to Christ: the Deacon-Servant. "Each deacon should have a sense of being joined with his fellow deacons in a bond of charity, prayer, obedience to their bishop, ministerial zeal and collaboration"
– National Directory for the Formation, Ministry, and Life of Permanent Deacons in the United States

The Permanent Diaconate was restored, after the Second Vatican Council, as a Sacred Order by Motu Propio of Pope Paul VI in 1968. Cardinal Timothy Manning ordained the first class of 17 permanent deacons on June 7, 1975 for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. At the latest ordination, Archbishop José Gomez ordained 11 men to the permanent diaconate on August 22, 2020 in an outdoor Mass in the Plaza at the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels. Deacons serve in a variety of ministries in a majority of more than 240 parishes and missions in the five pastoral regions of the Archdiocese. As of Setember 1, there are 416 deacons serving in the Archdiocese (380 in active assignment and 36 retired).
