Catholic Charities: 100 years of compassion

In the past 100 years, both the history of Los Angeles and the history of Catholic Charities have experienced great changes. In 1919, Bishop John J. Cantwell was at the helm of the then-90,000-square-mile Diocese of Monterey-Los Angeles. He was especially noted for the spiritual care and material welfare of the non-English speaking people of the area, and it was Bishop Cantwell who brought together the various Catholic charitable groups providing services throughout the City of Los Angeles and formed the Associated Catholic Charities.

By 1921, the organization had linked these Catholic activities with city, county and state departments, institutions and agencies and was renamed the Bureau of Catholic Charities. Only a year later, the southern area of the sizable diocese was split off to form the Diocese of Los Angeles-San Diego and in 1926 the organization was again renamed as the Catholic Welfare Bureau.

Just 10 years later, the diocese was again divided to become the Archdiocese of Los Angeles and the Diocese of San Diego, and in 1937 the Catholic Welfare Bureau was incorporated in the State of California. Its member agencies include the Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) and the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine (CCD). The agency was eventually incorporated in 1986 as Catholic Charities of Los Angeles, Inc., and became the social service arm of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles yet remains its own non-profit public benefit corporation.

Regardless of race, ethnicity, gender, age or religious belief, Catholic Charities continues to provide services to anyone in need. Supplying emergency services and the basic necessities of life to the poorest residents of the archdiocese, it also strives to find permanent solutions to crisis situations by offering clients the tools and resources they need to better their lives.

Today, Catholic Charities of Los Angels operates 18 community centers and eight homeless shelters. It also serves the poor with multi-faceted programs and offers a continuum of care for clients as they move from vulnerability to self-sufficiency.

Various programs serve children and teens including after-school child care, youth employment services, homework assistance and tutoring, and support for pregnant and parenting youth. The agency's CYO program continues to coordinate interscholastic athletics for Catholic elementary schools in Los Angeles County.

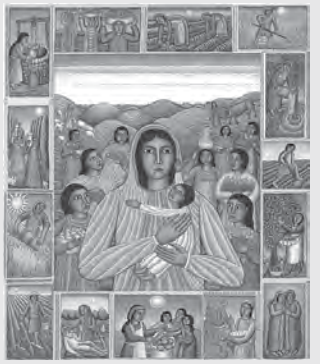

Services for other vulnerable populations include immigration and refugee support and psychological services, English as a Second Language (ESL) and General Education diploma (GED) classes for adults, and services for homebound seniors.

Catholic Charities continues its tradition of service with programs to meet contemporary needs. Adjacent to its corporate office is a "village" that includes two critically needed programs. The first is Angel's Flight Shelter for homeless, runaway and at-risk boys (ages 10 through 17). The second is housing for transition-age youth (TAY), young men who have aged-out of the foster-care system and are homeless. Additionally, mothers and their children who are victims of domestic violence can find housing and assistance in locations throughout the Archdiocese.

While Catholic Charities of Los Angeles has continued to grow its programs and services over a century, there are considerable challenges in meeting the growing population and clients' needs today. You can help Catholic Charities to begin a new "Century of Compassion" to provide help and create hope for those most in need in Los Angeles, Ventura and Santa Barbara counties. Check out the agency website at www.CatholicCharitiesLA.org for ways to assist in giving hope and opportunities to those who are less fortunate in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles.

Artist John August Swanson reflects on his serigraph, The Madonna of the Harvest (2010): The work evolved from many sources. It took a long time to develop the idea and the art. It was like ground being prepared for planting. This artwork expresses the goodness and beauty of the Madonna. I portray Mary as a young woman who is close to the Earth, with her feet in its soil. She is a woman who grows food for her family, who knows poverty, who is a refugee, and who understands the labor of those who work the land. She honors the people who care for the Earth; those who grow and harvest our food.

Mary is placed into a backdrop of life within a larger community of people working together and helping one another. Stories about Mary, the Virgin Mother of Jesus, inspire and nurture people from all over the globe, from many faith groups and religions. People recognize within the icons and images of the Madonna a way to reconnect with the source of life, to experience the kind of unconditional love perhaps best expressed by one's own mother.

Coat of Arms

Pope Francis has kept his episcopal coat of arms and motto for his pontificate, adding the bishop's miter and the keys of St. Peter. The silver miter has three gold stripes to mirror order, jurisdiction and magisterium, and a vertical gold band connects the three stripes in the middle to indicate their unity in the same person. The papal emblem uses a gold key to represent the power in heaven and a silver key to indicate the spiritual authority of the papacy on earth. The red cord that unites the two keys alludes to the bond between the two powers.

The dark blue shield is divided into three sections. On the top is the official seal of the Society of Jesus; the symbol shows a blazing yellow sun inside with the red letters, IHS, the sign for the name of Jesus. A red cross rises up from the letter H and three black nails rest below. The bottom part of the shield depicts an eight-pointed gold star representing Mary and the buds of a spikenard flower representing St. Joseph. The papal motto inscribed on a white, red-edged banner underneath the shield is the Latin phrase "Miserando atque eligendo," literally, "by having mercy, by choosing him," relating to the call of St. Matthew, the tax collector.

On Wednesday, March 13, 2013, the Jesuit Cardinal Jorge Bergoglio was elected as the 266th Pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church and chose the papal name Francis to honor Saint Francis of Assisi. He succeeded Pope Benedict XVI who resigned after nearly eight years. Jorge Mario Bergoglio was born on December 17, 1936 in Buenos Aires, growing up in the working-class neighborhood of Barrio de Flores, son of an Italian immigrant railway worker and a homemaker. Even after a case of severe pneumonia and the partial removal of his right lung, he entered the Jesuit novitiate, and on December 13, 1969 he was ordained a priest for the Society of Jesus (the Jesuits). After serving as a teacher, and in posts as novice master and provincial superior, in 1992 he was appointed as Auxiliary Bishop of Buenos Aires. Five years later, he was appointed Coadjutor Archbishop and on February 28, 1998 he succeeded Cardinal Antonio Quarracino as Archbishop of Buenos Aires. On February 21, 2001 he was elevated to Cardinal. On Tuesday, March 19, 2013, he was installed as Pope. Francis is the first Jesuit pope, the first pope from the Americas and the Southern Hemisphere, and the first choosing the name Francis. He is fluent in Spanish and Italian, and conversant in Latin, German, French, and English. He is an accomplished theologian and has written books on spirituality and meditation.

Coat of Arms

Archbishop Gomez's Coat of Arms contains on the left side the shield of the Archdiocese with three sets of angels' wings, each guarding a golden rose. The roses symbolize the Blessed Mother and the angels' wings represent the City of Our Lady of the Angels.

The right side of the shield contains the Archbishop's personal arms. It contains a design based on the arms of his home, the City of Monterrey in Mexico. It is composed of a silver field that depicts the mountains outside the city with peaks that resemble a "saddle." A red sunburst peers from behind the green mountains.

In the upper left corner is a red rosebud with green stem and leaves. The rose is a traditional symbol of Our Lady of Guadalupe and is also associated with events in the life of St. Josemaria Escriva, founder of Opus Dei. The blue star opposite the rose signifies that the Blessed Virgin Mary has been designated as the Star of the New Evangelization at the beginning of the third millennium and it also represents the state of Texas which was his home for 14 years as a priest and then five years as Archbishop of San Antonio.

For his motto, Archbishop Gomez adopted the phrase "Adeamus cum fiducia ad thronum gratiae" from Hebrews 4:16, "Let us go forth with confidence to the throne of grace." The joining of the arms of the Archdiocese with Archbishop Gomez's personal arms signifies the spiritual union of a Bishop with his See.

History of the Ordinaries of the Archdiocese

Bishop Francisco Garcia Diego y Moreno, O.F.M.
1840-1846
Bishop of Diocese of Both Californias

Born September 17, 1785 in Lagos, Mexico; a member of the Order of Friars Minor, Franciscan; died April 30, 1846 in Santa Barbara (age 60); buried in sanctuary of Santa Barbara Mission.

The beginning of Catholicism in California dates from the early explorations of Juan Cabrillo in 1542 and Sebastian Vizcaino in 1602 and the priests who accompanied these explorers.The actual founding of El Pueblo de Nuestra Señora la Reina de Los Ángeles occurred in 1781. By 1840 Pope Gregory XVI established a hierarchy in California and named Franciscan Friar Francisco Garcia Diego y Moreno as the first bishop of the gigantic Diocese of Both Californias, which extended from the Oregon line to all of Baja California. He was ordained as bishop at the National Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico and opened the first seminary on the Pacific Coast. Bishop Moreno served the new diocese for six years.

Bishop Joseph Sadoc Alemany y Conill, O.P.
1850-1853
Bishop of Diocese of Monterey

Born July 13, 1814 in Vich, Spain; a member of the Order of Preachers, Dominican; died April 14, 1888 in Valencia, Spain (age 73); buried in Holy Cross Mausoleum in Colma, California.

After the death of Bishop Garcia, Father Gonzalez Rubio headed the diocese for four years as interim administrator. In 1849 the see officially became the Diocese of Monterey. Two years later, California became a state and Pope Pius IX named Dominican Father Joseph Sadoc Alemany, who was the provincial of the Dominicans in the United States, as bishop of the Monterey Diocese. In 1853 he was named the first Archbishop of San Francisco and peninsular California (Baja) was separated. He headed the Archdiocese until 1884 when he returned to Spain and died there in 1888. One of his achievements in the Diocese was the establishment of the first school for girls in 1851 under the direction of the Dominican Sisters.

Bishop Thaddeus Amat y Brusi, C.M.
1853-1878
Bishop of Diocese of Monterey (1853-1859)
Bishop of Monterey-Los Angeles (1859-1878)

Born December 31, 1810 in Barcelona, Spain; member of Congregation of the Mission, Vincentian; died May 12, 1878 in Los Angeles (age 67); buried in the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels, Los Angeles.

The Metropolitan See of San Francisco, in 1853, separated into smaller dioceses. The Holy See then appointed Vincentian Father Thaddeus Amat as the new Bishop of Monterey, that then extended from San Jose south to the Mexican border. He first established his residence at Santa Barbara, and Rome approved the move to Los Angeles in 1859 when the diocese was officially named Monterey-Los Angeles. He represented the diocese at the First Vatican Council (1869-70), established parochial schools and erected St. Vibiana Cathedral in 1876. Bishop Amat also brought the first orders of nuns to the city: Sisters of Charity and Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Bishop Francisco Mora y Borrell
1878-1896
Bishop of Diocese of Monterey-Los Angeles

Born November 25, 1827 in Catalonia, Spain; died August 3, 1905 in Spain (age 77); buried in the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels, Los Angeles.

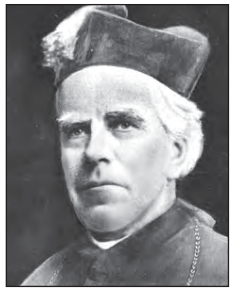

In 1863 Francisco Mora was named rector, and later became Vicar-General, of the Church of Our Lady Queen of Angels, "La Placita," located in the oldest part of downtown Los Angeles. Bishop Amat consecrated him a bishop in 1873 with the right of succession. Bishop Mora then headed the Diocese of Monterey-Los Angeles (75,984 square miles) in 1878 and for 18 years worked tirelessly to establish 72 parishes while facing many legal battles against the church. In 1895 he welcomed The Catholic Tidings, the first Catholic newspaper for the diocese. He resigned in 1896 and returned to Spain where he died in 1905. In 1962 his body was re-entombed in the Bishops' Chapel at Calvary Mausoleum in East Los Angeles.

Bishop George T. Montgomery
1896-1903
Bishop of Diocese of Monterey-Los Angeles

Born December 30, 1847 in Davis County, Kentucky; died January 10, 1907 in San Francisco (age 59); buried in Holy Cross Mausoleum in Colma, California.

Bishop Montgomery was born in Kentucky, the first native American head of the diocese, ordained a priest in 1879 and consecrated a bishop in 1894. He assisted in the administration of the diocese as coadjutor because of Bishop Mora's failing health and assumed complete administration of the Diocese of Monterey-Los Angeles in 1896. During his seven years as bishop, he faced serious bigotry but proved himself a great civic leader and dynamic churchman. In 1903 he was named coadjutor, with right of succession, to Archbishop Patrick Riordan of San Francisco. He served as archbishop for four years and died there in 1907, mourned by Catholics and non-Catholics throughout the state.

Bishop Thomas J. Conaty
1903-1915
Bishop of Diocese of Monterey-Los Angeles

Born August 1, 1847 in County Cavan, Ireland; died September 18, 1915 in Coronado, California (age 68); buried in the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels, Los Angeles.

Bishop Conaty had just completed a six-year term as rector of The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., when he was appointed head of the See of Monterey-Los Angeles. One of his major interests was Catholic education and preserving the California Missions. He organized the St. Vincent de Paul Society and, in 1904, acquired The Tidings as the official diocesan publication. During Bishop Conaty's episcopate, the total population doubled, priests numbered 229 and many new orders of Sisters were serving the diocese in education, hospitals and orphanages. When he died in 1915, the Catholic population had grown to 178,000, three times the number when he came to the diocese.

Bishop/Archbishop John J. Cantwell
1917-1947
Bishop of Diocese of Monterey-Los Angeles (1917-1922)
Bishop of Diocese of Los Angeles-San Diego (1922-1936)
Archbishop of Archdiocese of Los Angeles (1936-1947)

Born December 1, 1874 in Limerick, Ireland, died October 30, 1947 in Los Angeles (age 72); buried in the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels, Los Angeles.

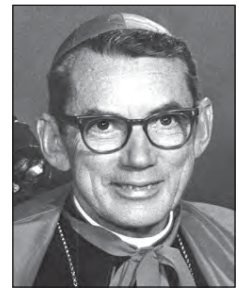

Two major divisions of the Monterey-Los Angeles Diocese occurred during Archbishop Cantwell's 30 years. In 1922 Pope Pius XI approved the division of the 90,000-square-mile diocese and created the Diocese of Los Angeles-San Diego. The next major alteration occurred in 1936 with the erection of a second Metropolitan District in California at Los Angeles, with the four southernmost counties comprising the Diocese of San Diego. He became the first archbishop, noted for his provisions for the spiritual and material welfare of non-English speaking people, and created 50 Hispanic parishes and missions.

Cardinal Archbishop James Francis McIntyre
1948-1970
Archbishop of Archdiocese of Los Angeles

Born June 25, 1886 in New York City; died July 16, 1979 in Los Angeles (age 93); buried in the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels, Los Angeles.

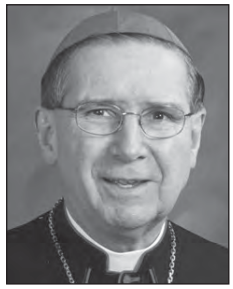

Cardinal McIntyre was an auxiliary bishop of the Archdiocese of New York for six years before his appointment to Los Angeles. Just five years after the appointment, in 1952, Pope Pius XII elevated him to the rank of cardinal, the first cardinal in the western United States. Cardinal McIntyre served during a period of incredible growth and expansion. Between 1948 and 1963, 82 parishes were added and Catholic schools tripled from 147 to 347, about one a month for 15 years. A tremendous wave of immigration brought an influx of Chinese, Japanese, Vietnamese, Koreans and other Asiatic groups as well as a rise of Hispanics and African-Americans in the Church. This period also witnessed several upheavals within the Church, including the Second Vatican Council and the exodus of many women religious from their communities.

Cardinal Archbishop Timothy Manning
1970-1985
Archbishop of Archdiocese of Los Angeles

Born November 15, 1909 in County Cork, Ireland; died June 23, 1989 in Los Angeles (age 79); buried in Calvary Cemetery, East Los Angeles.

Cardinal Manning served as auxiliary bishop in Los Angeles from 1946 to 1967, before being named as bishop of Fresno. In 1970 Coadjutor Archbishop Manning acceded to the See as the third Archbishop of Los Angeles and three years later became the second cardinal of the largest city in the world dedicated to Our Blessed Mother. For 15 years the Irish-born prelate prevailed through enormous changes in the Church aided by four auxiliary bishops for the three counties (Los Angeles, Santa Barbara and Ventura); in 1976 Orange County was separated into the Diocese of Orange. Cardinal Manning ordained the first permanent deacon class for the archdiocese in 1975 and by the end of his episcopate the Catholic population was close to 2.5 million. As bishop, he confirmed over 650,000 young people.

Cardinal Mahony retired March 1, 2011 as the active Archbishop of Los Angeles. Over 57 years a priest, he served the Archdiocese of Los Angeles for 25 years. His post-retirement ministry focuses on immigration reform.

2019 Cardinal's Awards Recipients

Typically five members from the Los Angeles Catholic community – one from each pastoral region – who have extensive and distinguished records of service are recipients of the Cardinal's Award. On Saturday, March 16, 2019, Archbishop José H. Gomez recognized these honorees at the Awards Dinner held at the Beverly Hilton Hotel. The 2019 honorees bring to 148 the number of men and women honored with the award since 1990.

David Borgatello

You can learn a lot about who David and Mario Borgatello and their 80-year-old family business, MarBorg (Santa Barbara's major waste management service), by the way they have supported Santa Barbara's Catholic schools. The list includes Our Lady of Mount Carmel, San Roque, St. Raphael and Notre Dame Elementary Schools and Bishop Garcia Diego High School, where David's and Mario's grandchildren are students. David and Mario are active supporters of Catholic education and community outreach agencies that serve those most in need, but as David, a longtime parishioner at Mission Santa Barbara, says, "Mom and Dad ... did what they could with what they had. And it rubbed off on me and my wife of 55 years, Louise. It taught us to do as much as we can, and that's why Together In Mission is wonderful, because it helps many parishes and schools who need help."

Dorene Dominguez

Her faith is what Dorene Dominguez intertwined with her drive to give hope to children by creating the Dominguez Dream in 2004, a non-profit foundation in memory of her late father, H. Frank Dominguez. Dorene now leads the Vanir Group of Companies Inc. that her father founded. The Dominguez Dream, conceived to "Educate, Empower and Achieve," has nine partner schools, with two more in the pipeline. One of the schools – Mother of Sorrows Catholic School in Los Angeles – is an example of the impact that the Dominguez Dream brings to students in the schools it supports: The school has a successful literacy program called "Project Leads" that helps students read at their grade level or above, and a parental engagement effort known to increase student success. Her goal is to have Dominguez Dream to be in each of the 17 cities nationwide where she has an office.

Colleen Roohan

In the weekly bulletin of St. Philip the Apostle Church in Pasadena, there's a regular posting about the Ministry of the Sick. This ministry is an extension of Colleen Roohan's career as a Geriatric Nurse Practitioner who currently works at Foothill Homecare Partners. Colleen and longtime friend Ann Sanders, both nurses, developed a Health Ministry after recognizing a need for educational and wellness events for parishioners at St. Philip the Apostle. In addition, Colleen has also been deeply involved as a Board Trustee for the Catholic Education Foundation since 2012, which has funded hundreds of thousands of tuition scholarship awards for elementary and high school students living in underserved areas of Los Angeles. She says, "Whether you're helping someone in their last days of life or helping children in our underserved Catholic schools, you can find Jesus in everyone you work with."

William Simon, Jr.

It was the investment firm that brought Bill Simon and his wife, Cindy, to Los Angeles in 1990, and 12 years later Simon ran for Governor of California. Though he lost the election, he continued his friendship with the late theologian Michael Novak, who led him to the essential vocation of the laity. In 2011, they collaborated on a book to encourage greater lay participation in Church ministry and to provide guidance. Two years later, Simon founded Parish Catalyst, an organization supporting innovation in parish ministry, and its research into 244 parishes nationwide became the basis for another book. In addition to teaching since 2011 in the Law School and Economics Department at UCLA, Simon has served on many charitable boards, including Catholic Charities of Los Angeles, the Catholic Community Foundation, Covenant House California, St. John's Health Center Foundation, and Ronald Reagan UCLA Medical Center.

Paul Tosetti

Paul Tosetti has shared 20 years of leadership work with Catholic Charities of Los Angeles, with an annual budget of more than $40 million and overseeing the five regions in Los Angeles, Ventura and Santa Barbara counties. As a partner with the law firm of Latham & Watkins and long-time co-head of its Global Mergers and Acquisitions Group, Paul has also been involved in a wide variety of unique business challenges. Those include what he calls "fun" assignments like acting as counsel to Major League Soccer in its formation and working with the organizers of the U.S. World Cup hosting efforts for 1994 and 2026. In addition, he also serves as the head of the L.A. Opera's Legal Committee and as an outside counsel to the Order of Malta. He and his wife Cathy and their two sons are parishioners at Holy Family Church in South Pasadena.

THE CARDINAL'S AWARD The Cardinal's Awards Dinner began in the late 1980s when Cardinal Roger Mahony, then-Archbishop of Los Angeles, expressed his interest in celebrating the selfless and talented people of the Archdiocese. The Cardinal's Awards Committee, honorees and beneficiaries represent the five pastoral regions of the Archdiocese. The Awards Dinner has raised more than $15 million to support parishes, schools, institutions and social services, and in 2019, the youth of the Archdiocese. Mission Statement - Archdiocese of Los Angeles

We, the People of God of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, humbly accept our mission to continue the redemptive work of Jesus Christ.

Baptized into the Body of Christ, confirmed in the Holy Spirit, and nourished by the Word and Eucharist, we share Christ's mission of priest, prophet and servant.

We affirm our oneness with the Catholic Church throughout the world, in communion with our Holy Father.

With the pastoral leadership of our Archbishop, we collaborate in various ways to live and proclaim the gospel.

Christ announced the Reign of God. As Church, we are the instrument of this reign in the world. We commit ourselves to build a community of faith and love.

With Christ, we bring good news to the poor. We commit ourselves to eliminate the many faces of poverty in our midst – physical, spiritual and moral.

With Christ, we uphold the dignity of human life. We commit ourselves to cherish each person and to be faithful stewards of all God's creation.

With Christ, we affirm the bonds that unite us. We commit ourselves to remove the barriers that divide people in the large, complex and multicultural society of Southern California.

We dedicate our parish communities and our schools, institutions, ministries and organizations to fulfill this mission under the loving patronage of Mary, Queen of Angels.

About the Region

There are 37 parishes in the region in 19 cities that are located in the two counties of Ventura and Santa Barbara – the largest in area of the five regions.

Four of the original California Missions are in the region – La Purisima Concepcion, 1787; Santa Ines, 1804; Santa Barbara (the Queen of the Missions), 1786; and San Buenaventura, 1782.

The most remote inland parish is in New Cuyama – Immaculate Conception – and the most remote from Los Angeles is in Guadalupe on the Central Coast – Our Lady of Guadalupe. Three chapels are on military bases – Port Hueneme, Point Mugu and Vandenberg.

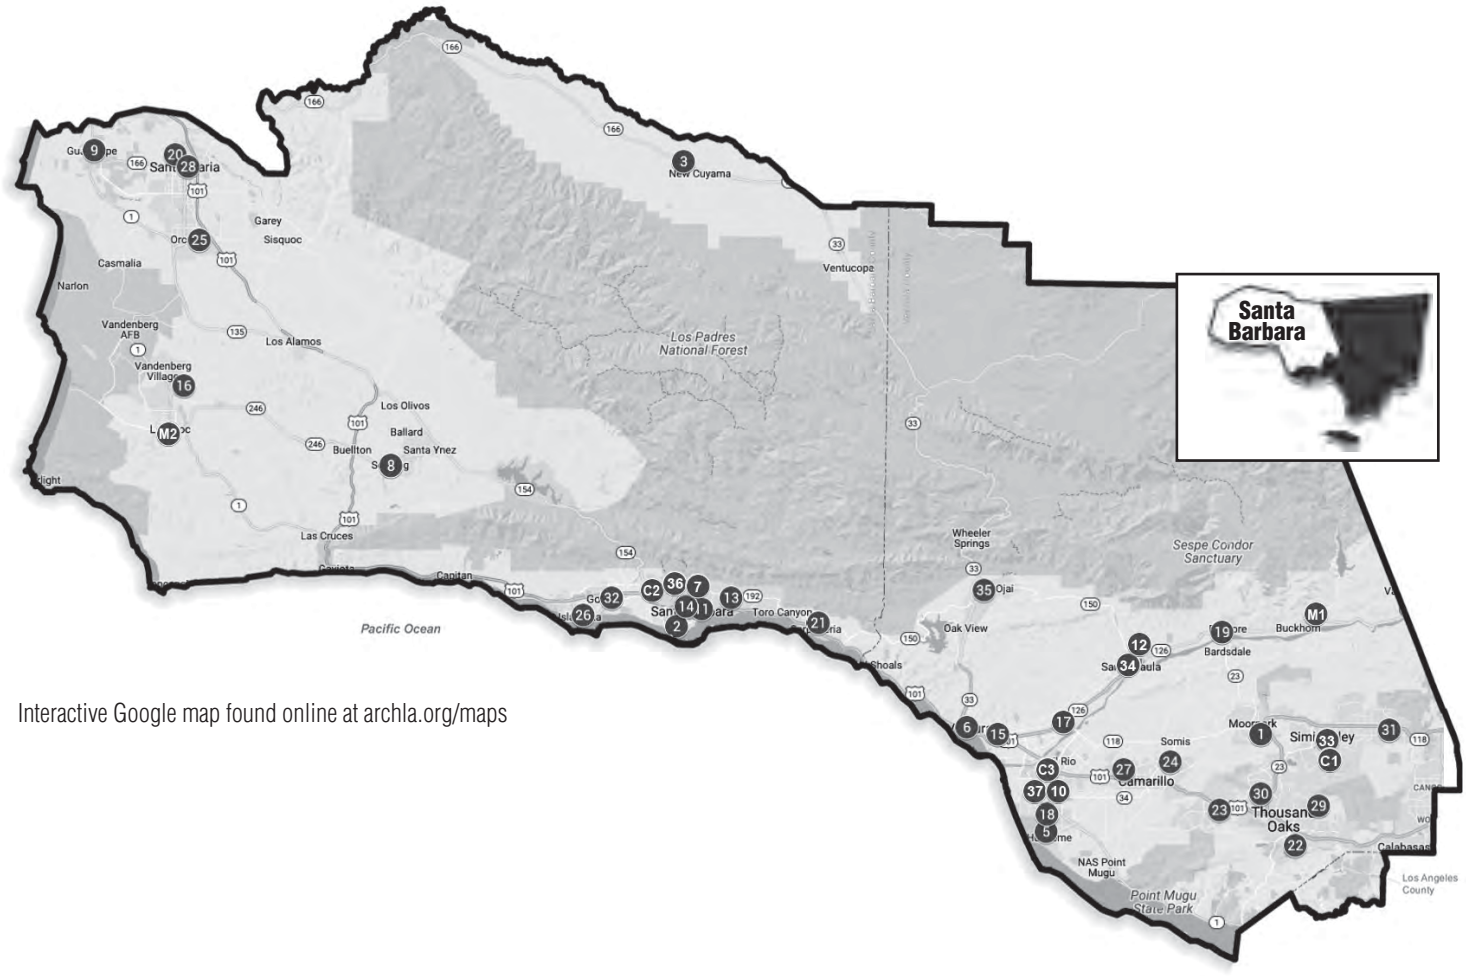

St. John's Seminary for the archdiocese is in the region, opened in 1939 and located in Camarillo.

Four of the parishes are named for Our Lady of Guadalupe, there are five parochial missions, three cemeteries and seven high schools.

About the Region

There are 56 parishes in the region located among 29 cities, including seven in Los Angeles. The region is named after the mission, San Fernando Rey de España that was founded in 1797 to honor St. Ferdinand, King of Castile and Leon in the 13th century. Saint Pope John Paul II visited the mission during his trip to L.A. in 1987. The Archdiocesan Archival Center and museum are on the mission grounds.

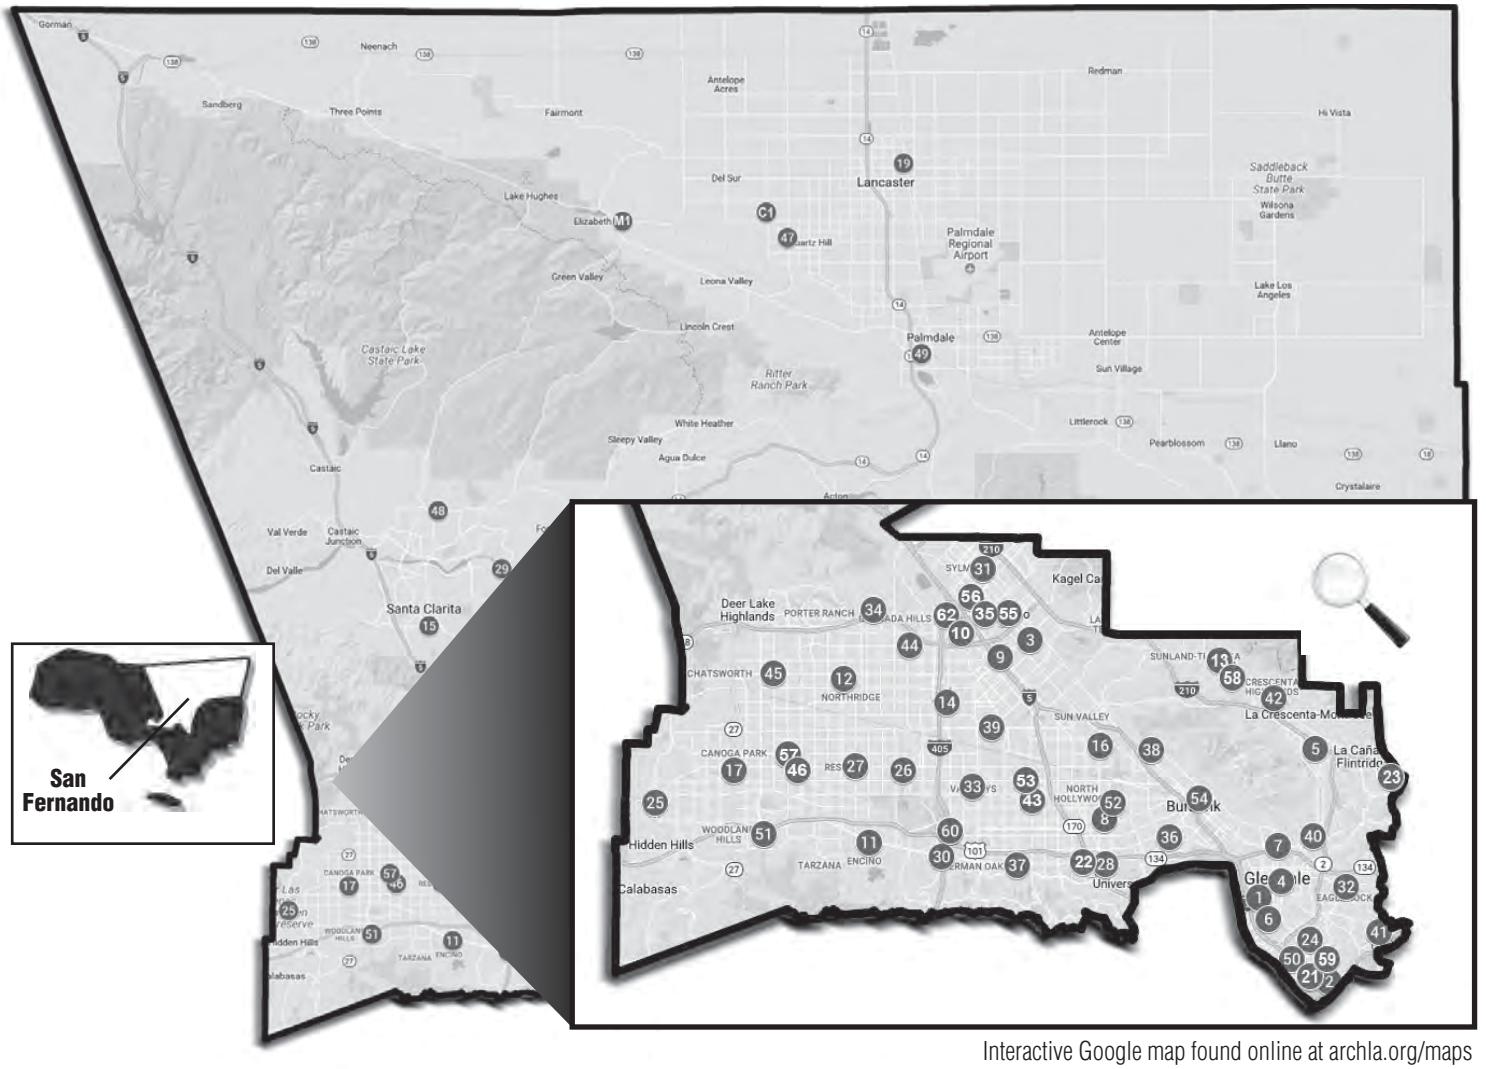

There are two other retreat centers in addition to St. Andrew's Abbey (the Benedictine monastery and retreat center), the only abbey in the archdiocese. The region has 12 high schools and seven parochial missions.

Seven Eastern Catholic churches are in the region – Armenian, Assyrian Chaldean, Byzantine, Coptic, Melkite Greek, Syriac and Syro-Malibar.

Tridentine Latin / Extraordinary Form Masses

The Ordinary Form of the Roman Rite (the Missal of Pope Paul VI-1969) is the familiar post-Vatican Mass. The Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite (the Missal of Blessed John XXIII-1962), or "Tridentine" Rite, has similar elements, but each has its own distinguishing characteristics. For example, each form has its own liturgical calendar and cycle of readings. The Ordinary Form has multiple Eucharistic Prayers, but the Extraordinary Form uses the Roman Canon exclusively.

The term "High Mass" or "Solemn High Mass" (Latin: missa solemnis) is the full ceremonial form of the Tridentine Mass requiring most of the parts of the Mass to be sung along with the use of incense. "Low Mass" is defined officially in the Code of Rubrics included in the 1962 edition of the Roman Missal as Mass in which the priest does not chant the parts that the rubrics assign to him.

Eastern Catholic Churches

The Eastern Catholic Churches, also historically known as the Eastern-rite Catholic Churches, are 23 Eastern Christian churches in full communion with the Pope in Rome, as part of the worldwide Catholic Church. Headed by patriarchs, metropolitans and major archbishops, the Eastern Catholic Churches are governed in accordance with the Code of Canons of the Eastern Churches, each church with its own canons and laws in addition. The total membership of the various churches accounts for about 16 million, thus making up about 1.5 percent of the Catholic Church, with the rest of its more than 1.2 billion members belonging to the (Western) Latin Church. Full communion constitutes mutual sacramental sharing between the Eastern Catholic Churches and the Latin Church, including Eucharistic intercommunion.

The Cathedral of Saint Vibiana opened in 1876 as the cathedral for the then-Diocese of Monterey-Los Angeles, and remained the official cathedral of the Los Angeles see for over 100 years. It was heavily damaged in the 1994 Northridge earthquake and its successor, the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels, was dedicated in 2002.

Parish Life Directors & Pastoral Associates

Parish Life Office Director: Katherine R. Enright
3424 Wilshire Blvd, L.A. 90010-2241 (213) 637-7533; web: www.la-archdiocese.org/org/parishlife

Vatican II reminded us of the ancient understanding of the priesthood of all the baptized. It is through our baptism that we are all called to participate in the apostolic work of the Church. More recently, in 1983, the Code of Canon Law was revised and now includes a provision that "in the case of a lack of priests," pastoral care can be done by someone other than a priest (517.2).1n the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, Cardinal Roger Mahony anticipated such a time when, in April1997, he directed his Leadership Team to form a study group to look at the feasibility of a new ministry, that of "Pastoral Associate." A year later, following publication of a draft document describing the role of a Pastoral Associate, a pilot program was approved.

In 1999, the Department for Pastoral Associates was established, the predecessor to the Office of Parish Life. On Holy Thursday of 2000, the Cardinal issued the document, "As I Have Done for You," in which he affirmed lay ecclesial ministry. The Cardinal described lay ecclesial ministry as "a vocation of full time Church service in response to the needs of each local community ... a unique vocation in the Church, a call to service in the name of the Church ... exercised in a stable, public, recognized, and authorized way." The first group of Pastoral Associates for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles was commissioned by the Cardinal in 2003.

Nationally, other important events related to the development of lay ecclesial ministry have occurred. In 2000, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops issued the document, "Called and Gifted: The American Catholic Laity," which notes that "since the Second Vatican Council new opportunities have developed for lay men and women in the Church" (no. 7). In 2005, the USCCB released "Co-Workers in the Vineyard, a Resource for Guiding the Development of Lay Ecclesial Ministry," which "expresses our strong desire for the fruitful collaboration of ordained and lay ministers who, in distinct but complimentary ways, continue in the Church the saving mission of Christ for the world" (no. 6).1n November 2011, the bishops approved an updated version of the National Certification Standards for Lay Ecclesial Ministers.

We have arrived at a time when we do not always have a priest available to serve the needs of the people of God. Simultaneously, we have witnessed the growing phenomenon of lay men and women discerning a call to serve the Church in a professional capacity, equipping themselves to do so through prayer, formation, education and training. The Office of Parish Life helps those preparing for service as Parish Life Directors and Pastoral Associates.

Parish Life Directors

Parish Life Directors and Parish Life Deacons serve as the spiritual and administrative leader in a parish where there is not a priest pastor. A Priest Moderator, the canonical pastor of the parish, is available for advice and counsel. A Parish Life Director works with a Priest Minister who is responsible for the sacramental life of the parish. It is preferred that a Parish Life Director be a commissioned Pastoral Associate with several years of experience serving the diocese in that role before becoming a Parish Life Director.

Pastoral Associates

A Pastoral Associate is a generalist in ministry who works collaboratively with a priest pastor to serve the needs of the parish. The Pastoral Associate's ministry will vary from one parish to another depending upon the direction of the pastor, the specific needs of the parish, the gifts and talents of the Pastoral Associate, and the other staff resources available.

A brief history of St. John's Seminary

On March 3, 1927, the Board of Diocesan Seminary Trustees for Los Angeles accepted an offer from Don Juan Camarillo (1867-1936) of 100 acres on a hill terrace overlooking a small farming community in Ventura County as the site for a future seminary. The economic crisis at the time slowed fundraising efforts, but through the generous contributions of the people of the diocese, Archbishop John J. Cantwell (1917-1947) announced the building of the seminary on January 14, 1938. By August, ground was broken; and on September 12, 1939, St. John's Seminary opened its doors to 70 candidates for the priesthood.

Archbishop Cantwell entrusted the administration of the seminary to the Vincentian Fathers and named its first rector, Fr. William P. Barr, C.M. (1939-1949), along with 10 faculty members. Further construction brought completion of the seminary chapel and its solemn consecration by the Archbishop on October 8, 1939. Just a year later, on October 14, 1940, the Apostolic Delegate, Archbishop Amleto Cicognoni, dedicated the Edward L. Doheny Memorial Library. St. John's Seminary received its first accreditation from the Western College Association in 1951. The increased number of candidates in the six-year academic program required Cardinal James Francis McIntyre to complete a long-planned expansion of the seminary. In 1956, a student recreation hall, additional classrooms, and a new dormitory dedicated to St. Thomas Aquinas were added.

It was Fr. William Kenneally, C.M. (1958-1967), who supervised the construction of St. John's Seminary College, which began operations on the crest of the hill above the theologate. With the opening of the college came the four-year philosophy and theology programs, and the college was now empowered to grant a Master of Arts degree. The Theology and College Divisions remained under the same administration until 1966, when Very Rev. Louis J. Franz, C.M. (1966-1970) was named the first Rector of the College.

From 1962 to 2003, the Seminary College provided undergraduate education in philosophy and liberal arts. Due to low enrollment, the College division was closed in May 2003, and a Pre-Theology program was inaugurated. The Carrie Estelle Doheny Memorial Library (Philosophy Library) functions as the Pre-Theology Center.

Under the leadership of Fr. John Grindel, C.M. (1973-1978), the Theology Division received its initial accreditation in 1976 from the Association of Theological Schools (ATS) in the United States and Canada. Fr. Charles Miller, C.M., (1978-1987) served until Cardinal Roger Mahony named Msgr. George H. Neiderauer (1987-1992) the first in a succession of diocesan priest rectors. Under the leadership of Msgr. Jeremiah McCarthy (1994-2001), a grant from the Lilly Foundation provided for technological renovation of the seminary classrooms. Under the leadership of Msgr. Helmut A. Hefner, J.C.L. (2001-2007), the seminary initiated a strategic plan and refurbished the seminary's entrance and chapel courtyard. In May 2003, the seminary inaugurated a Master's in Pastoral Ministry. This degree for lay ministers supports the overall program of seminary formation and fosters collaborative ministry in the post-Vatican II Church. During the service of Msgr. Craig A. Cox as Rector (2007-2014), the seminary received reaccreditation for maximum terms from the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) and ATS. In addition, the St. Mary and St. Thomas Dormitories were remodeled and other improvements to programs and facilities were undertaken.

Msgr. Marc V. Trudeau (2014-2018) was rector for the Seminary's 75th anniversary of its founding in September 2014. On July 1, 2018, Archbishop José Gomez appointed Fr. Marco A. Durazo, S.T.D. (2018-present) to serve as the 14th rector. St. John's Seminary continues to serve the needs of the Church through education and formation, reflected in the effective ministry of a large number of priest alumni in the many dioceses and religious communities that serve the Catholic Church in the Southwestern United States and around the world.

Catholic Charities has helped supply the basic necessities of life to the most impoverished residents of Los Angeles since 1919. It strives to find permanent solutions to crisis situations by offering clients the tools and resources they need to achieve greater self-reliance and stability in their lives. Services are provided regardless of race, ethnicity, gender, age or religious belief.

To most effectively manage the delivery of services, the agency is divided into five areas that coincide with the Pastoral Regions of the Archdiocese. This enables Catholic Charities to maintain a presence in communities with the greatest needs while sharing common resources and administrative overhead.

Office of Marriage & Family Life

Director: Joan Vienna Office: 3424 Wilshire Blvd. L.A. 90010-2241 (213) 637-7227 FAX (213) 637-6681; web: www.la-archdiocese.org/org/familylife

The Synod Fathers emphasized that Christian families, by the grace of the sacrament of matrimony, are the principal agents of the family apostolate, above all through "their joy-filled witness as domestic churches." The Church wishes, with humility and compassion, to reach out to families and "to help each family to discover the best way to overcome any obstacles it encounters" (Pope Francis, Amoris Laetitia [The Joy of Love], #227). It is not enough to show generic concern for the family in pastoral planning. Enabling families to take up their role as active agents of the family apostolate calls for "an effort at evangelization and catechesis inside the family" (#228). The Office of Marriage & Family Life answers Pope Francis' call by offering support to married couples, widowed, divorced and separated families with the following programs and resources:

MARRIAGE PREPARATION

Classes: One-day Saturday or evening classes are designed to prepare engaged couples for marriage. They will discuss topics such as Family of Origin, Communication, Finance and Intimacy to learn more about themselves and each other as they prepare to make a lifelong commitment to each other in the Catholic Church. English: (213) 637-7250, email: cmetoyer@la-archdiocese.org; Spanish: (213) 637-7561, email: gvillalobos@la-archdiocese.org; web: www.archla.org/marriageprep.

THERAPIST REFERRAL DIRECTORY: The Referral Directory contains the names and information of therapists who are in private practice or are part of a larger group or clinic. Each therapist is either Catholic or Christian and has agreed to uphold the teachings of the Catholic Church. For more information, call (213) 637-7398.

NATURAL FAMILY PLANNING: Instruction for couples who want a sound, proven method of family planning approved by the Catholic Church that will help them grow in harmony and sanctity in their relationships. English: (213) 637-7250; email: cmetoyer@la-archdiocese.org; Spanish: (213) 637-7561, email: gvillalobos@la-archdiocese.org; web: www.archla.org/marriageprep.

MINISTRY TO SEPARATED & DIVORCED CATHOLICS

Support groups and seminars are designed to help the divorced during this stressful experience. It includes an annual Mass for separated and divorced that is celebrated each year as a time of prayer and thanksgiving for the support and love of God, family, friends and church. English: (213) 637-7249.

NAIM ORGANIZATION FOR WIDOWS AND WIDOWERS: Named after the biblical story of the widow of NAIM, this ministry provides spiritual, social and peer support to Catholic widows and widowers through special seminars, retreats and activities. English: (213) 637-7228; Spanish: (213) 637-7561, (323) 262-2515.

Office of Safeguard the Children

Coordinator: Joan Vienna Office: 3424 Wilshire Blvd, L.A. 90010-2241 (213) 637-7227 FAX (213) 637-6681
Children's Programs: Sr. Mary Elizabeth Galt, B.V.M., Chancellor (213) 637-7460; web: www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting

The Office of Safeguard the Children is dedicated to protecting all of God's children by fully implementing Article 12 of the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People adopted by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops in 2002. The Office provides ongoing support, education, training and resources to help prevent child sexual abuse and to address children's safety issues.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN PARISH COMMITTEES: These committees are the foundation of the Archdiocese's efforts to protect children and young people. The Safeguard the Children Parish Committees work to educate staff, volunteers, parents, children and youth, and provide resources on child sexual abuse prevention and safety for all God's children; email: jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

VIRTUS© "Protecting All God's Children Adult Awareness Sessions": A three-hour training session that helps clergy, staff, volunteers and parents understand the facts and myths about child sexual abuse. Adults learn five steps to keep children safe. Contact: Joan Vienna, email: jvienna@la-archdiocese.org; web: www.virtus.org/virtus.

CHILD SEXUAL ABUSE PREVENTION RESOURCES: The Office provides a variety of resources, including: Safeguard the Children Parish Committee Handbook; Teaching Touching Safety Parent Guide; Child Abuse Prevention Month Campaign Materials; and other resources to help caring adults to protect our children and young people.

EMPOWERING GOD'S CHILDREN & YOUNG PEOPLE©: A K-12 program that is a vehicle through which parents, teachers, catechists and youth ministers give children and young people the tools they need to protect themselves from those who might harm them. (213) 637-7479.

WORKING TOGETHER TO PREVENT CHILD SEXUAL ABUSE: This informative brochure lists the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' Safe Environment offices, programs, policies and procedures in addition to contact phone numbers and websites. It also gives the Child Abuse Hotline phone numbers for L.A., Santa Barbara and Ventura Counties. For free copies of this brochure in English or Spanish, call (213) 637-7508; or email: bmelendez@la-archdiocese.org.

Cardinal Manning House of Prayer for Priests

Located in the Los Feliz area of Los Angeles, the Cardinal Timothy Manning House of Prayer for Priests provides a spiritual oasis for priests with accommodations surrounded by lush greenery.

One of three chapels on the property, the Celebration Chapel is the primary gathering place for prayer and Eucharist.

Set in the Los Feliz area of Los Angeles near Griffith Park, the Cardinal Timothy Manning House of Prayer for Priests opened in 1975 under the guidance and inspiration of Cardinal Timothy Manning and Jesuit Father John McAnulty. It was their vision that there be a special place exclusively for priests to nourish their spiritual lives and to pray for the people whom they serve.

In 1995, Cardinal Roger Mahony expanded and rededicated the House of Prayer to serve a larger number of priests. In honor of his predecessor, Cardinal Mahony officially renamed the new facility the Cardinal Timothy Manning House of Prayer for Priests.

Today, the House of Prayer offers retreats (individually directed, preached and private), spiritual direction, days of recollection, daily Sacrament of Reconciliation, as well as providing a place for priests' support groups to meet. The facility consists of three primary buildings: McAnulty Hall (the original house), Bethany (which houses the guest units), and Emmaus (the main building).

Msgr. Jack Stoeger currently serves as Director, and Jesuit Father Christopher Cartwright is the Associate Director. The following Spiritual Directors serve one day a week: Father Jim Clarke (Monday, Eng/Sp), Msgr. Lorenzo Miranda (Tuesday, Eng/Sp), Missionary of the Holy Spirit Father Eugenio Cárdenas (Wednesday, Eng/Sp), and Benedictine Father Joseph Brennan (Thursday, Eng).

For nearly 20 years the Order of St. Gregory the Great has committed to the Cardinal Timothy Manning House of Prayer for Priests, taking it on as its apostolate. Their gracious involvement and generosity in supporting the House of Prayer's mission of reflection, renewal and direction continues to be an integral part of our continued success.

Deacons Serving the Archdiocese

Diaconate Office – Director: Deacon Shane Cuda (213) 637-7734, email: dnshanecuda@la-archdiocese.org
3424 Wilshire Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90010-2241; web: www.la-archdiocese.org/org/deacons

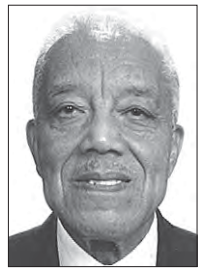

By virtue of their ordination, a sacramental fraternity unites deacons. They form a community that witnesses to Christ: the Deacon-Servant. "Each deacon should have a sense of being joined with his fellow deacons in a bond of charity, prayer, obedience to their bishop, ministerial zeal and collaboration"
– National Directory for the Formation, Ministry, and Life of Permanent Deacons in the United States

The Permanent Diaconate was restored, after the Second Vatican Council, as a Sacred Order by Motu Propio of Pope Paul VI in 1968. In 1975 Cardinal Timothy Manning ordained the first class of 25 permanent deacons for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. At the latest ordination, Archbishop José H. Gomez ordained 11 men to the permanent diaconate on June 8, 2019 at the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels. Currently there are 410 deacons serving in a majority of the parishes in the five pastoral regions in a variety of ministries in more than 240 parishes and missions in the Archdiocese.
