2. PRAY

In today's Gospel, we hear that it is important not to just say we will do something but to actually do what we say.

Children: Can you remember a time when your Mommy or Daddy asked you to do something and you said ok, but you forgot? How do you think that made them feel? Tell Jesus about this.

Teens: Recall a time when someone asked you to do something. You reluctantly said yes, and had no intention of following through. How do you think the person felt? How does that make you feel? Talk to Jesus about it.

Young Adults: Remember a time when someone made you a promise but their actions didn't match their words. How did that make you feel and how did it affect your relationship with that person? Ask Jesus to help you forgive. How will you grow from this experience?

Adults: Have you ever said the words, "I will pray for you." Challenge yourself instead to say "Let's pray about that right now together?" How will this change of action possibly change the heart of the person you are praying for and how might it also transform you? Talk to Jesus about this.

3. TALK

Share with your family, or a trusted friend, ways that you can make sure that your words and your actions match. Check in with one another throughout the week and share your experience.
