1. HEAR

Grab your Bible and look up the Gospel reading. Don't have one? You can find the text here.

2. PRAY

For today's prayer, you're invited to sing or reflect quietly on the hymn "How great Thou Art" by Stuart K. Hine.

Here are a few ways to get creative with today's prayer: play the video and watch it together, sing together, have someone play the hymn if they are familiar with it, pray with the lyrics.

After the song is over, reflect on what you heard and what you experienced. Share with one another or reflect quietly.

3. TALK

In the Gospel reading the disciples argue over who is the greatest, Jesus says to be great means to be last, to serve others, and to receive the lowly.

- How can you live out greatness?
- Does this conflict with your current understanding of greatness?

Challenge:

As a family, make a list of what makes Jesus great. Choose one trait from the list to live out this week. Consider selecting a new trait every week.
