1. HEAR

Grab your Bible and look up today's Gospel reading. If you don't have a Bible, you can find the Gospel here.

Watch a proclamation of the Gospel for children (Holy Heroes, 2:14).

2. PRAY

As a family, gather together and sit quietly. Each member of the family invites the Holy Spirit into his/her heart with their own words. Next, take turns reading out loud a section of the Sequence.

*Come, Holy Spirit, come!
And from your celestial home shed a ray of light divine!
You, of comforters the best;
you, the soul's most welcome guest.*

*Sweet refreshment here below;
In our labor, rest most sweet;
Grateful coolness in the heat;
O most blessed Light divine,*

*Shine within these hearts of yours,
and our inmost being fill!
Heal our wounds, our strength renew;
On our dryness pour your dew;*

*Wash the stains of guilt away;
Bend the stubborn heart and will;
Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Guide the steps that go astray.*

*On the faithful, who adore
And confess you, evermore
In your sevenfold gift descend;
Give them virtue's sure reward;*

*Give them your salvation, Lord;
Give them joys that never end. Amen.
Alleluia.*

3. TALK

One parent or adult asks the questions below, according to the age level:

1. For adults, pose these two questions: Can you think of a moment or a time when you felt the action of the Holy Spirit moving in you? What were the fruits of that movement of the Holy Spirit you experienced?
2. For small children, pose this question: Can you think of a time when you felt close to God? Then, ask them to draw their answer and share it with the group.
3. For young people, pose this question: Can you identify a time when you felt moved to do something good for someone else? Next, invite them to share what they did, if they feel comfortable.

Reflecting on St. Paul's words in the second reading, as a family will make an effort this week to be aware of the action of the Holy Spirit working in our lives.
