

ADVANCED MINISTRY STUDIES

The Office of Religious Education in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles offers a certification in Advanced Ministry Studies to women and men that would like to prepare themselves with a formal formation with emphasis in catechetical, pastoral and ecclesial applications. Given them the opportunity to be form to exercise different roles at parish or archdiocesan level.

The program offers the certification in a hybrid format, giving opportunity to experience face-to-face and online teaching formats.

The certification program has the following five formation goals:

1. Theological Foundation
2. Evangelizing Catechesis
3. Pastoral Ministry and applications
4. Methodology
5. The Art of Accompaniment

Who can participate in this program? Students/participants who are preparing to serve in parishes, archdiocesan/diocese offices, education, lay or religious ministers (working in any ministry in the church) and/or for their own personal growth.

Parish catechetical leaders or any other minister in the Church can take the classes for enrichment, the none certification option. This formal education will serve them as their professional ongoing formation.

Any person that wants to have formal education and growth deeper in their faith can take the classes for not credit (audit the class) with special discount.

PARTICIPANTS WHO COMPLETE THIS PROCESS FOR CERTIFICATION WILL:

- Be commissioned /certified in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles with one of the following certifications:
 - ⇒ Advanced Ministry Studies
 - ⇒ Archdiocesan Master Catechist
- Be accompanied by a team of professors and facilitators

ADVANCE MINISTRY STUDIES PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The certification in Advanced Ministry Studies consists in three year process with one Saturday on site or online class, participation in our Moodle Learning Management System for forums and pastoral integration essays.

THEOLOGY YEAR

Discipleship—Missionary Discipleship and Evangelization, Theological Reflection and Spirituality, Principles of Catholic Theology and Revelation, Hebrew Scripture OT, Christian Scripture NT, Christology and Soteriology, Ecclesiology and Pneumatology, Eschatology, Mariology and the Saints, Moral Theology, Liturgy and Sacramentality, Sacrament Theology.

MINISTERIAL YEAR

Ministry—Discernment and Charisms, Evangelizing Catechesis and the Catechist, Social Mission of the Church / Christian Spirituality, Faith Development and Christian Praxis, Understanding the Adults we Accompany (Adult Ministry) The Pedagogy of the Faith, Methodology in Catechesis, RCIA and the Catechumenal Model for Faith Formation, Intercultural Competencies - Cultural Diversity in the Church, Media Literacy, Special Needs.

PASTORAL YEAR

The Art of Accompaniment, Public Speaking, Presentation Skills, Team Dynamics, Ministry and Technology, Collaboration and Communication, Participation and Facilitation of One Mission One faith project.

FACULTY

Our faculty is drawn from the excellent scholars in the Religious Studies, Scripture and Ministerial expertise from Saint John Seminary, LMU, Santa Clara University, Catholic Apostolate Center from Washington DC, as well as experts on specific areas.

2022-2023 SCHEDULE

August 20, September 24, October 22, November 19, December 10, of 2022 and January 14, February 11, March 18, April 22, May 20, June 24, of 2023. Annual Retreat August 27, 2023.

FEES

The Advanced Ministry Studies registration fee is $20.00 and $50.00 tuition fee per class.

APPLICATION

For more information or to apply visit our website HERE or contact Flor de Maria Luna

Coordinator of Catechist Formation at Fluna@la-archdiocese.org
FLuna—May 12, 2022

