2. PRAY

Let us pray together

Lord, many times we have been like Martha. Help us to be like Mary so that we can become like Martha.

Give us the ability to admire ourselves with your presence, to always want to be by your side.

Give us, Lord, the grace to be like Mary and to be able to have our eyes on the Master. Let us be a reflection of the encounter with you with our brothers.

Give us the ability to be able to be caring in helping and serving our brothers and sisters so that we can be reflections of your love.

Share with us how you are living out your faith at home. Use #LACatholicsBelieve and tag @LACatholics on social media.

Protect, Lord Jesus, this family that gathers today in your name. Help us to love ourselves more so that this love is reflected in each one of us and so that we may take it as missionary disciples, to those most in need, to those who are on the periphery. Amen.

We conclude prayer with Mary and Martha's song: click HERE.

3. TALK

Jesus makes it very clear to us that before wanting to do things for the kingdom there is listening. He invites us to nourish ourselves with his Word.

As a family, discuss the following questions:

- Who do I identify with? With Martha or with Mary?
- How are you going to act like Mary, giving the Lord your time and like Martha, caring for others?
- What time of day do I reserve to "sit at the feet of Jesus"?

My commitment for this week

This week, begin each day with at least 15 minutes of prayer to start your day.
