2. PRAY

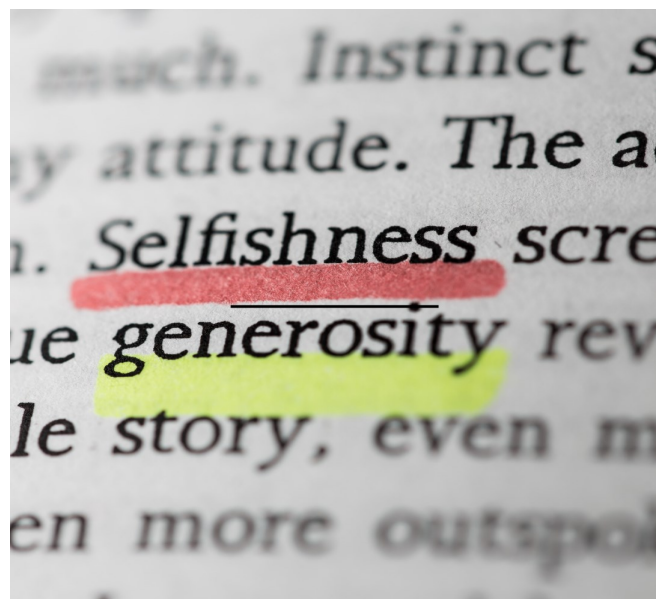

Take a moment of silence to reflect on the Gospel words.

- Ask God to open our hearts to see the times we have not been humble and put ourselves ahead of another person's feelings and needs.
- Take a moment to listen and ask God for the strength to be humble and unselfish to those we encounter in our lives.

3. TALK

- Can you share a time when you have put yourself ahead of others and you were only thinking about yourself in the situation?
- Can you think about a time when you put another person's needs before yours?

Consider one of these activities to do as an individual or family:

- Is there someone you know in school, or in your family, that you may have been reluctant to help because of your own self-interest that you could perhaps help this week? Try reaching out to them.
