

JESUS WELCOMES ALL DISCIPLES!

Workshop for parents, catechists and teachers who minister to people with different abilities.

You are invited to gather VIRTUALLY with other disciples in ministry to experience adaptive prayer, active learning, hands-on activities, networking, and resources to help us facilitate the encounter of persons with disAbilities and Jesus. Come to experience and practice interactive modalities on adaptive catechesis and evangelization for your home, classroom, and faith formation program. Sign up today!

Whom? Parents and relatives, catechists, teachers, and anyone who ministers to people with different abilities and their families.

When? Thursday, March 23, 2023
From 7 - 9 pm (Please join the meeting 10 mins before time.)

Where? Virtually, via Zoom
(Link will be emaild on the day before the workshop.)

Cost? FREE! Thanks to the generous support of Loyola Press.

SPACE IS LIMITED!

Online registration is required. Scan this QR Code or visit:

<http://store.la-archdiocese.org/elementary-level-catechesis-for-special-abilities-engvirtual>

EACH PARTICIPANT MUST PROVIDE THE FOLLOWING MATERIALS: 1 PAPER PLATE, PLAYDOUGH, 1 JOURNAL SHEET, MARKERS OR CRAYONS, YOUR FAVORITE PEN, AND A STUFFED ANIMAL.

Ana Barraza is a Special Education teacher with a specialization in fine arts, and is a member of the Loyola Press Speaker Corps. She heads the Ministry for Catholics with disAbilities in the Diocese of Sacramento, and leads the Adaptive Faith Formation program in her parish. Ana has certifications in Digital Evangelization and Catholic Digital Entrepreneurship from the University of Costa Rica as well as a certification in Mental Health First Aids. Ana is the creator and founder of Catholicus, a catholic entrepreneurship dedicated to facilitating the encounter with Jesus and persons with disAbilities.

This workshop counts as a 2-hour credits for catechist recertification purposes. If you feel sick, DO NOT come to the workshop. For information: Douglas E. Zuniga - (213) 637-7410

Sponsored by:

LOYOLA PRESS.
A JESUIT MINISTRY

TRANSFORMING LIVES
TRANSFORMANDO
VIDAS