-  7 PM

You have probably heard a lot about the Eucharistic Revival? But what does it mean for your daily life in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles? In this presentation, come hear about how you can be a protagonist of evangelization by learning how to foster a Eucharistic culture in your parish, school, and neighborhood.

Timothy P. O'Malley, Ph.D. is Director of Education at the McGrath Institute for Church Life and Academic Director of the Notre Dame Center for Liturgy. Prof. O'Malley is a theologian at the University of Notre Dame, teaching and researching in liturgical-sacramental theology, catechesis, and preaching. He is the author of nine books, most recently Becoming Eucharistic People: The Hope and Promise of Parish Life (Ave Maria Press, 2022) and Real Presence: What Does It Mean and Why Does It Matter (Ave Maria Press, 2021). Prof. O'Malley is a popular national and international speaker on the intersection of the liturgy and the work of evangelization in the Church.
