1. HEAR

Grab your bible and look up the Gospel reading. Don't have one? No worries you can find the Gospel reading by clicking HERE.

(Bishop O'Connell's Gospel Reflection page.)

As an alternative to reading the Gospel, you can watch a short video with the proclamation for adults by clicking HERE. (YouTube, The Passion and Death of Jesus, Douglas Brown, Revised Common Lectionary readings 16:30 min)

Children can also watch a video proclamation of the Gospel by clicking HERE.

(YouTube, Crossroads Kids' Club 2:47min)

2. PRAY

Go and spend some time individually or as a family in prayer. In Luke 23:39-43, before Jesus died on the cross, he promised the good thief he'd be with Him in paradise. Jesus gives us this promise too. He loves us this much that he made this sacrifice for you and me.

Take some time to pray and listen to the following song: Lead Me to the Cross. What is Jesus asking you to repent from and lay at the cross so you can experience His love more fully?

3. TALK

In today's Gospel, we are encouraged to reflect and share with another person on Jesus' sacrificial love.

As you prepare to go through this Holy Week and prepare for the Lord's death and resurrection, reflect on how and when you experienced sacrificial love? How can you show or give sacrificial love to another this week?
