Your Partner In Mission

May - June

2025

From the desk of Sr. Rosalia,

Dear Brothers in Christ,

We join the whole Church in mourning the death of Pope Francis, a faithful servant of the Gospel who led us with humility, courage, and a heart rooted in Christ. His commitment to mercy, dialogue, and the dignity of every person leaves a lasting legacy.

As we look toward the coming conclave, let us remain united in prayer. May the Holy Spirit guide the College of Cardinals with wisdom and openness, that the next successor of Peter may shepherd the Church with clarity of vision, pastoral charity, and a deep fidelity to the mission entrusted to us all.

In communion and hope,

Sr. Rosalia Meza, VDMF
Director of Religious Education

MYSTAGOGY: NOT JUST FOR NEOPHYTES

Katie Zeigler

Coordinator
Adult Faith Formation
(English)

213-637-7616

kzeigler@la-archdiocese.org

During the Easter season, the neophytes who received the sacraments of initiation at the Easter Vigil enter into the final period of Initiation, the Period of Mystagogy. Yet, mystagogy is not only for the neophytes! The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults tells us that after the neophytes have received the Easter sacraments, “the community together with the neophytes... makes progress in understanding the Paschal Mystery more deeply and carrying it over more and more into the practice of daily life” (244, emphasis added). In other words, the Church – all the baptized faithful – enters into mystagogy along with the neophytes.

Through the sacraments, we are united with the life of Jesus Christ (cf. CCC 1129), and “it is in the sacraments, especially in the Eucharist, that Christ Jesus works in fullness for the transformation of human beings” (Catechesi Tradendae, 23). As the neophytes newly enter into this experience of the sacraments, the community of the faithful helps them come to a fuller and more fruitful understanding of the mysteries they are now entering into and incorporate them fully into the life of the community (cf. OCIA 245-247). The community also is enriched as the neophytes share with them their new view of things as well as their new enthusiasm.

The Easter season is an opportune time to encourage all the baptized to continue (or embark for the first time) on a mystagogical journey led by the Spirit, through which their experience of the liturgy and the sacraments gradually transform the entirety of one’s life (Directory for Catechesis, 98), as they “come to realize how sweet the Lord is” (OCIA, 245).
