A Message from the Archbishop

Greetings, my friends!

I am proud to introduce our latest Archdiocese of Los Angeles Catholic Directory, your official guide to the beautiful work of the Family of God here in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles.

In these pages you will find a listing of all parishes, schools, ministries, and more, which span across the Counties of Los Angeles, Ventura, and Santa Barbara.

What you will discover in these pages is that the Church here is alive, a true family of faith, so many men and women — ordained, religious, consecrated, and lay people — serving God and their neighbors, sharing the love they have found in Jesus Christ.

I am grateful to all of you, and I am humbled every day to serve with you in this beautiful mission of following Jesus and spreading the joy of his Gospel.

Entrusting you and your families and loved ones to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Our Blessed Mother, I ask that Our Lord grant you peace and joy.

Most Reverend José H. Gomez
Archbishop of Los Angeles

Mission Statement

Archdiocese of Los Angeles

We, the People of God of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, humbly accept our mission to continue the redemptive work of Jesus Christ.

Baptized into the Body of Christ, confirmed in the Holy Spirit, and nourished by the Word and Eucharist, we share Christ's mission of priest, prophet, and servant.

We affirm our oneness with the Catholic Church throughout the world, in communion with our Holy Father.

With the pastoral leadership of our Archbishop, we collaborate in various ways to live and proclaim the gospel.

Christ announced the Reign of God. As Church, we are the instrument of this reign in the world. We commit ourselves to build a community of faith and love.

With Christ, we bring good news to the poor. We commit ourselves to eliminate the many faces of poverty in our midst — physical, spiritual, and moral.

With Christ, we uphold the dignity of human life. We commit ourselves to cherish each person and to be faithful stewards of all God's creation.

With Christ, we affirm the bonds that unite us. We commit ourselves to remove the barriers that divide people in the large, complex, and multicultural society of Southern California.

We dedicate our parish communities and our schools, institutions, ministries, and organizations to fulfill this mission under the loving patronage of Mary, Queen of Angels.

Pope Francis

Casa Santa Marta 00120 Città del Vaticano, Vatican City
@Pontifex

Cardinal Jorge Mario Bergoglio, Archbishop of Buenos Aires, Argentina, was elected as the 266th Pontiff of the Catholic Church on March 13, 2013, choosing the papal name Francis to honor Saint Francis of Assisi. He succeeded Pope Benedict XVI, who resigned after nearly eight years.

Jorge Mario Bergoglio was born on December 17, 1936, in Buenos Aires, the son of an Italian immigrant railway worker and a homemaker. Even after a case of severe pneumonia and the partial removal of his right lung, he entered the Jesuit novitiate, and on December 13, 1969, he was ordained a priest for the Society of Jesus (the Jesuits).

After serving as a teacher, and in posts as novice master and provincial superior, in 1992 he was appointed as Auxiliary Bishop of Buenos Aires. Five years later, he was appointed Coadjutor Archbishop, and on February 28, 1998, succeeded Cardinal Antonio Quarracino as Archbishop of Buenos Aires. On February 21, 2001, he was elevated to Cardinal.

On March 19, 2013, he was installed as Pope. Francis is the first Jesuit pope, the first pope from the Americas and the Southern Hemisphere, and the first choosing the name Francis. He is fluent in Spanish and Italian, and conversant in Latin, German, French, and English.

About the Archdiocese

The Archdiocese of Los Angeles, formally established as an archdiocese in 1948, is the culmination of the evolution of the Roman Catholic presence in the Californias.

The origins of the archdiocese within the Church can be traced to 1681, when spiritual jurisdiction over the areas of Baja California and Alta California was assigned to the bishop of Guadalajara, Mexico.

in 1779, Pope Pius VI created the Diocese of Sonora, comprising the provinces of Sonora, Sinaloa, and both Californias.

Two years later, in 1781, El Pueblo del Rio de Porciuncula (or popularly Pueblo de Nuestra Senora de los Angeles) was formally established near present-day downtown Los Angeles by settlers encouraged to come north from Mexico.

In 1840, the Diocese of Both Californias, which covered the Baja Peninsular California and Alta California, was established by the Holy See. In 1848 Alta California was ceded to the United States after the Mexican-American War and the diocesan name was changed to the Diocese of Monterey in 1849.

In 1853, Baja Peninsular California was removed from the Diocese of Monterey and later that year, Pope Pius IX created a Metropolitan District based at San Francisco: The new Archdiocese of San Francisco covered the area north of San Jose; to the south, the larger but suffragan Diocese of Monterey encompassed the rest of Southern California. In 1859 the episcopal seat was moved to Los Angeles and the diocese was renamed the Diocese of Monterey-Los Angeles.

The Diocese of Monterey-Los Angeles remained intact until 1922. It was reconfigured by the Holy See that year at the request of Bishop John Cantwell, who asked that the 12 counties north of Santa Barbara County remain with Monterey and the southern counties form a separate jurisdiction as the Diocese of Los Angeles-San Diego.

In July 1936, a second Metropolitan District in California, which was based in Los Angeles, was established and the four southernmost counties became the Diocese of San Diego. In January 1948 its jurisdiction was designated officially as the Archdiocese of Los Angeles in California and Bishop Cantwell became the first archbishop.

In 1976, Orange County was separated from the Archdiocese of Los Angeles to become the Diocese of Orange, and in 1978, Riverside and San Bernardino Counties were separated from the Diocese of San Diego to form the Diocese of San Bernardino.

Today, the Archdiocese of Los Angeles now includes Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, and Ventura Counties, and the Archbishop of Los Angeles serves as the metropolitan for the archdiocese and the Dioceses of Fresno, Monterey, Orange, San Bernardino, and San Diego.

In 2002 the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels was formally dedicated. Located in the Civic Center area, the new cathedral is situated to serve the growing needs of the cultural and geographical diversity in the greater Los Angeles area.

Eastern Catholic Churches

The Eastern Catholic Churches, also historically known as the Eastern-rite Catholic Churches, are 23 Eastern Catholic Churches in full communion with the Pope in Rome, as part of the worldwide Catholic Church. Headed by patriarchs, metropolitans and major archbishops, the Eastern Catholic Churches are governed in accordance with the Code of Canons of the Eastern Churches, each church with its own canons and laws in addition. The total membership of the various churches accounts for about 16 million, thus making up about 1.5 percent of the Catholic Church, with the rest of its more than 1.2 billion members belonging to the (Western) Latin or Roman Catholic Church. Full communion constitutes mutual sacramental sharing between the Eastern Catholic Churches and the Latin Church, including Eucharistic intercommunion.

Prelature of the Holy Cross and Opus Dei

The Apostolic Constitution "Ut sit", promulgated by Pope John Paul II on November 28, 1982, formally established Opus Dei, which was initially founded by Spanish prelate St. Josemaria Escriva (1902-1975; canonized in 2002) on October 2, 1928, to promote a deep understanding of the universal call to holiness in everyday life, particularly in one's work.

Parish Life Directors & Pastoral Associates

Office of New Evangelization & Parish Life: 3424 Wilshire Blvd. Los Angeles, CA 90010 • (213) 637-7366; www.archla.org/onepl

Director: Bobby Vidal • Email: bvidal@la-archdiocese.org

Vatican II reminded us of the ancient understanding of the priesthood of all the baptized. It is through our baptism that we are all called to participate in the apostolic work of the Church. More recently, in 1983, the Code of Canon Law was revised and now includes a provision that “in the case of a lack of priests,” pastoral care can be done by someone other than a priest (517.2). In the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, Cardinal Roger Mahony anticipated such a time when, in April 1997, he directed his Leadership Team to form a study group to look at the feasibility of a new ministry, that of “Pastoral Associate.” A year later, following publication of a draft document describing the role of a Pastoral Associate, a pilot program was approved.

In 1999, the Department for Pastoral Associates was established, the predecessor to the Office of New Evangelization & Parish Life. On Holy Thursday of 2000, the Cardinal issued the document, “As I Have Done for You,” in which he affirmed lay ecclesial ministry. The Cardinal described lay ecclesial ministry as “a vocation of full time Church service in response to the needs of each local community ... a unique vocation in the Church, a call to service in the name of the Church ... exercised in a stable, public, recognized, and authorized way.” The first group of Pastoral Associates for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles was commissioned by the Cardinal in 2003.

Nationally, other important events related to the development of lay ecclesial ministry have occurred. In 2000, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops issued the document, “Called and Gifted: The American Catholic Laity,” which notes that “since the Second Vatican Council new opportunities have developed for lay men and women in the Church” (no. 7). In 2005, the USCCB released “Co-Workers in the Vineyard, a Resource for Guiding the Development of Lay Ecclesial Ministry,” which “expresses our strong desire for the fruitful collaboration of ordained and lay ministers who, in distinct but complementary ways, continue in the Church the saving mission of Christ for the world” (no. 6). In November 2011, the bishops approved an updated version of the National Certification Standards for Lay Ecclesial Ministers.

We have arrived at a time when we do not always have a priest available to serve the needs of the People of God. Simultaneously, we have witnessed the growing phenomenon of lay men and women discerning a call to serve the Church in a professional capacity, equipping themselves to do so through prayer, formation, education and training. The Office of New Evangelization & Parish Life helps those preparing for service as Parish Life Directors and Pastoral Associates.

Parish Life Directors & Deacons

Parish Life Directors and Parish Life Deacons serve as the spiritual and administrative leader in a parish where there is not a priest pastor. A Priest Moderator, the canonical pastor of the parish, is available for advice and counsel. A Parish Life Director works with a Priest Moderator who is responsible for the sacramental life of the parish. It is preferred that a Parish Life Director be a commissioned Pastoral Associate with several years of experience serving the Archdiocese in that role before becoming a Parish Life Director.

Epiphany (South El Monte):

St. Anne (Santa Monica):
Deacon Raul Molina

Pastoral Associates

A Pastoral Associate is a generalist in ministry who works collaboratively with a priest, Life Director or Parish Life Deacon to serve the needs of the parish. The Parish Pastoral Associate's ministry will vary from one parish to another depending upon the direction of the pastor, the specific needs of the parish, the gifts and talents of the Pastoral Associate, and the other staff resources available.

Priests Serving the Archdiocese

The following pages contain photographs of Archdiocesan and Religious Order priests serving in various ministries throughout the five Pastoral Regions. Included are some retired priests and those on active ministry in other countries. Some recent photos were unavailable for this year's directory. The year of ordination is listed under each photo. Each priest is also listed in the Telephone Index for parish and contact information. (List is current through August 2024)

Deacons Serving the Archdiocese

Office of Deacons – Director: Deacon Gabriel Saavedra • (213) 637-7086 • Gsaavedra@la-archdiocese.org
3424 Wilshire Blvd. Los Angeles, CA 90010-2241 • <https://lacatholics.org/departments-ministries/deacons/>

By virtue of their ordination, a sacramental fraternity unites deacons. They form a community that witnesses to Christ: The Deacon-Servant. “Each deacon should have a sense of being joined with his fellow deacons in a bond of charity, prayer, obedience to their bishop, ministerial zeal and collaboration”
– National Directory for the Formation, Ministry, and Life of Permanent Deacons in the United States

The Permanent Diaconate was restored, after the Second Vatican Council, as a Sacred Order by Motu Proprio of Pope Paul VI in 1968. Cardinal Timothy Manning ordained the first class of 17 permanent deacons on June 7, 1975, for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. At the latest ordination, Archbishop José Gomez ordained 8 men to the permanent diaconate on June 8 2024, at the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels. Deacons serve in a variety of ministries in a majority of more than 240 parishes and missions in the five pastoral regions of the Archdiocese.

THE BOB SMITH FAMILY

Bob Smith Toyota has been in La Crescenta 31 years, but their dealership pedigree goes beyond a century.

Guided by a shared entrepreneurial spirit, creativity and outright gumption, Robert A. Smith and his descendants have, for over a century, maintained a line of successful California car dealerships. The first Chevrolet dealership opened in San Francisco in 1917. Dodge-Plymouth dealership opened in Burbank in 1933. In May 1963, purchased the Volkswagen-Porsche dealership in Hollywood. The family also would go on to deal with Audis, Fiats, Alfa Romero, Mitsubishi, Lancias and BMW's — the latter of which goes on their watch, from an unknown German brand to the Smith family's longest running make.

Tim Smith the youngest of the four brothers on October 1, 1973 became general manager at Bob Smith BMW. "BMW was really small," Tim added noting that only 14,000 BMW's sold nationwide that first year. "I remembered that: We lost money and I called my dad and he said, 'Don't worry. That's going to be a good franchise someday.'"

Bob Smith BMW is celebrating 51 years in Calabasas. Tim Smith whose BMW and MINI dealerships in Calabasas are run by his daughters, Catherine and Anne along with son Matt Smith.

"In those days, if you had a franchise you were allowed to set up shop anywhere in the city," said Mike Smith, of Bob Smith Toyota. They had 12 little shops set up all over San Francisco. They looked like little gas stations but were outlets for car sales. "You were basically a distributor," Pete Smith, Mike's son, added. "So you couldn't buy a Chevrolet unless you bought it from Smith Anderson," Mike said. Smith Anderson was the name of the dealership at that time. Back then, the motor vehicle was not commonplace, but the Smith patriarch had a vision of not only what people wanted but what they would also want in the future.

"I am not sure where [grandfather's] education ended, but he was smart enough to think the car business had a future," Mike said. Throughout the century the Smith family has had dealerships that sold a variety of cars in a variety of locations. Eventually Mike's father bought a location in Glendale. This family business then expanded to Hollywood and broadened its services to include leasing. "There were really two big companies in leasing—My dad had a lot of friends who would buy Dodges and would do in-house financing, so they didn't have to pay too big a down payment. Then two or three years later they would turn in their car and get another car," Mike said.

The Smith family really does have cars in their blood. The Chevrolet dealership was in business 17 years, Dodge 29 years, VW/Porsche/Audi 30 years, Toyota is going strong at 31 and the BMW dealership in Calabasas has been going strong for 51 years.

Aside from Mike's sister, who lives in northern California and has been in education most of her life, most of four generations of Smiths have been in the business of selling, servicing and leasing cars.

"Automotive blood has spread throughout the family pretty good," Mike said.

Office of Marriage & Family Life

Director: Joan Vienna • 3424 Wilshire Blvd. Los Angeles, CA 90010
(213) 637-7227 • Fax (213) 637-6681 • www.familylife.lacatholics.org

The Synod Fathers emphasized that Christian families, by the grace of the sacrament of matrimony, are the principal agents of the family apostolate, above all through “their joy-filled witness as domestic churches.” The church wishes, with humility and compassion, to reach out to families and “to help each family to discover the best way to overcome any obstacles it encounters” (Pope Francis, Amoris Laetitia [The Joy of Love], #227). It is not enough to show generic concern for the family in pastoral planning. Enabling families to take up their role as active agents of the family apostolate calls for “an effort at evangelization and catechesis inside the family” (#228). The Office of Marriage & Family Life answers Pope Francis’ call by offering support to married couples, widowed, divorced and separated families with the following programs and resources:

Marriage Preparation

Classes: One-day Saturday or evening classes are designed to prepare engaged couples for marriage. They will discuss topics such as Family of Origin, Communication, Finance and Intimacy to learn more about themselves and each other as they prepare to make a lifelong commitment to each other in the Catholic Church.

Office of Safeguard the Children

Director: Joan Vienna • 3424 Wilshire Blvd. Los Angeles, CA 90010 • (213) 637-7227 • Fax (213) 637-6681

Children's Programs: Brenda Melendez Cabrera, Associate Director • (213) 637-7508 • www.lacatholics.org/departments-ministries/safeguard-the-children/

The Office of Safeguard the Children is dedicated to protecting all of God's children by fully implementing Article 12 of the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People adopted by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops in 2002. The Office provides ongoing support, education, training, and resources to help prevent child sexual abuse and to address children's safety issues.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN PARISH COMMITTEES: These committees are the foundation of the Archdiocese's efforts to protect children and young people. The Safeguard the Children Parish Committees work to educate staff, volunteers, parents, children, and youth, and provide resources on child sexual abuse prevention and safety for all God's children. VIRTUS®: "Protecting All God's Children: Adult Awareness Sessions": A three-hour training session that helps clergy, staff, volunteers, and parents understand the facts and myths about child sexual abuse. Adults learn five steps to keep children safe. Contact: Joan Vienna, jvienna@la-archdiocese.org | www.virtus.org/virtus.

CHILD SEXUAL ABUSE PREVENTION RESOURCES: The Office provides a variety of resources, including Safeguard the Children Parish Committee Handbook; Teaching Touching Safety Parent Guide; Child Abuse Prevention Month Campaign Materials; and other resources to help caring adults to protect our children and young people.

EMPOWERING GOD'S CHILDREN & YOUNG PEOPLE®: A K-12 program that is a vehicle through which parents, teachers, catechists, and youth ministers give children and young people the tools they need to protect themselves from those who might harm them.

WORKING TOGETHER TO PREVENT CHILD SEXUAL ABUSE: This informative brochure lists the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' Safe Environment offices, programs, policies, and procedures in addition to contact phone numbers and websites. It also gives the Child Abuse Hotline phone numbers for L.A., Santa Barbara, and Ventura Counties. For free copies of this brochure in English or Spanish, call (213) 637-7508; Brenda Melendez Cabrera or bmelendez@la-archdiocese.org.

Historic Sainthood Cause Happening Now in Los Angeles

"Fidelity to Mary... Look to Her and Love Her as your very own Mother in Heaven. She will always be near you as the one who loved Jesus more than any other person on earth. I cannot stress enough how important is devotion to the Blessed Mother. Anything you could possibly offer to God, your entire self, is far better when presented through the mediation of Mary."
